Vow over start of work on Tesco site

SUPERMARKET bosses have confirmed that work will begin on a new Tesco store in Rugeley 'very soon'.

The company was given permission two years ago for a shop in Power Station Road but the site is still to be cleared.

However, the delay has been welcomed by some traders who fear a free 380-space car park at the new site will attract shoppers away from the town centre.

But Jonathan Simpson, corporate affairs manager for Tesco, said: "We plan to get on the site and start work very soon. We have no exact date, but we certainly hope work will have begun in the early new year.

Petrol

"We look forward to investing in the town and beginning trading in the near future."

The 40,000sq ft store, on the former Celcon factory, will include a separate restaurant, petrol station and free parking for up to three hours.

Graham Howley, owner of Dyson Revivers in the Brewery Street shopping centre, said: "We're obviously worried people will stop parking in the town centre and go and park at Tesco for free instead, costing us the business we need."

Belting out Bond tunes

SINGER Jayne Bond will be performing James Bond theme tunes at a charity event near Cannock this weekend.

Jayne's husband is named James Bond and she regularly performs the hits from 007 movies.

Sunday's fundraiser takes place at Chase Golf Club at Pottal Pool from 1pm.

Tickets are priced at £16, to include a three-course meal and are available from Jayne's father, the Rugeley actor Trevor Taylor. Call 01889 576675.

FESTIVE PARKING BLOW FOR TOWN

A CUT-price parking scheme to boost business in Cannock town centre has been delayed and will not be brought in time for the busy Christmas shopping period.

It had been hoped a six-month pilot scheme where shoppers are charged 50p to park for 30 minutes in new pay-and-display bays would be introduced before the festive period.

But a consultation on the proposals will not be concluded until the New Year, meaning shopkeepers will miss out on the predicted extra footfall from cheap parking.

The pilot, which will see 23 bays installed in Manor Avenue, Stafford Road and Mill Street, was agreed in August, and was expected to be introduced "imminently".

Transport chiefs have this week admitted their disappointment at the delay.

Ratified

County councillor Pat Corfield said: "I don't think realistically we are going to be looking at Christmas now, given we are almost in November."

"The consultation has to run for a period of time and then it has to be ratified."

"I'd rather this scheme was introduced sooner rather than later."

It would have been nice to have given people the opportunity in the run-up to Christmas.

"The more we can do for the town centre the better - everybody needs a bit of help, that's the bottom line."

by Mark Mudie

Members of Cannock Chase's joint parking committee, which is made up of district and county council members, approved the new short-stay parking bays in August.

A last-ditch amendment calling for the bays to be free of charge was rejected.

If the new bays are only 75 per cent used, council chiefs would make £27,500 in their first year and £48,500 every subsequent year.

Traders were handed a boost earlier this month when it was announced that shoppers would be able to park for free in all of the district council-owned car parks on both December 15 and 22.

Under original plans put forward by council officers this summer, charges would have been introduced for existing on-street parking bays in Cannock.

A 60p charge for every half-hour was proposed for 37 bays in Market Place, Church Street, High Green and Queen Street.

But councillors rejected the suggestion and said the bays should remain free.

Food firm cooks up fundraising treat

MEMBERS of staff at a catering company in Cannock have held a bake sale to raise money for charity.

Employees at 3663 First for Foodservice, on Hickling Road, Kingswood Lakeside, dressed up as witches and wizards and sold a variety of sweet treats to raise money for Callum's Wish appeal.

Estelle Perry, telesales operator said:

"We wanted to raise money in memory 10-year-old of Callum Henry who was killed in a car crash in Castle Vale last year. His father Martin works with us so I stayed up baking chocolate apples, cakes and cupcakes until midnight."

Cakes

"I didn't mind because it's all for a good cause. The cakes sold out in half an hour and so far we have raised £160," she added. Martin has been fundraising for the past year and he held a pied piper disco at the weekend to raise even more money.

"We will probably have another bake sale nearer to Christmas."

All the money raised will go towards buying a new astrofurf football pitch for Topcliffe Primary School where Callum was a pupil.

A&E unit to reopen for some overnight

PATIENTS suffering from chest pain and shortness of breath will be admitted to Stafford Hospital's A&E at night under proposals to reopen the department round-the-clock.

The plans are subject to final approval by paramedics and GPs but talks are ongoing and it is hoped an agreement can be reached in time for the unit to reopen 24 hours a day in December - more than a year after it shut between 10pm and 8am due to staff shortages.

Health bosses expect Stafford to treat two patients a night who would otherwise have been sent to New Cross in Wolverhampton, Walsall Manor or hospitals in Burton or Stoke.

Transferred

They hope to increase that figure depending on the early success of the pilot.

For the last 12 months up to 15 patients a night have been transferred.

Robert Courtney-Harris, medical director at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust which runs Stafford Hospital, said: "We are delighted to be working with our commissioning partners to improve the experience of, what will initially be a small number of patients who are currently being redirected to other hospitals at night."

Ladies only shop treat

A LADIES only shopping event takes place in Great Wyrley later this month.

It is being held at Old Wyrley Hall, Olde Hall Lane, from 7-10pm on Monday, November 12 with proceeds going to a village charity.

Exhibitors will include bespoke jewellery and accessories, designer make-up, soaps, chocolate, cup cakes, crafts, seasonal essentials, wreaths and baubles.

Entry is free, there will be a raffle and visitors can enjoy a glass of wine. Call Ryan on 07557 336668.

GERMAN ELECTRIC HEATING IS THE ANSWER

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not gas, oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Advertisement

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work-boots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Jobs created as newest pub opens

CANNOCK'S newest bar, the Courtyard, has been officially opened by the district council chairman.

Councillor Bob Todd cut the ribbon on the High Green bar last Thursday (October 26), following a £140,000 investment by the Bramwell Pub Company.

Ten jobs have been created at the pub in the kitchen and bar areas. Manager Steve Banks said: "The Courtyard looks fantastic and we are just so pleased with the changes that have been made."

"It's the right combination of stylish, contemporary and relaxing."

"We want to attract a broad range of customers from families, businessmen and women as well as our core customer base of young adults. The team and I are so proud of the Courtyard - it feels as though the investment has been a long time coming but it's certainly been worth the wait."

"We will be striving to offer residents and visitors to Cannock a pub that they can be proud of and one that offers warm, friendly service time after time," he added.

Plans for hospital site future unveiled by MP

CHASE MP Aidan Burley has unveiled plans to safeguard the future of Cannock Hospital, including converting parts of the building into offices or classrooms.

The MP has unveiled a raft of proposals for the hospital after bosses admitted it was operating at 40 per cent of capacity, sparking fears it could be closed.

Centre to research defects is launched

A MULTI-MILLION pound research centre dedicated to investigating birth defects has opened, with a cash injection of £1.5m from Cannock-based Newlife.

The £6.5m Newlife Birth Defects Research Centre is the first of its kind in Europe. Three specialist teams who will examine ways to prevent birth defects will be based at the centre, at University College London's Institute of Child Health. HRH Princess Anne opened the cutting-edge centre last Thursday.

Newlife medical director Professor Michael Patton said: "The work of our Newlife Birth Defects Research Centre will have a significant impact on our understanding of birth defects and will have cutting edge research using the latest technology in genetics and developmental biology."

Professor Andrew Copp, head of the centre, said: "The Newlife Birth Defects Research Centre will be the first research grouping to focus specifically on understanding how birth defects arise, and finding new ways to treat and prevent them."

He will tomorrow (Friday) chair the first meeting of a working group he has set up amid speculation over services being withdrawn from Cannock.

Plans to close the hospital's kitchens and send food from Stafford were announced in the summer, a move expected to save £220,000 a year as health chiefs look to save £10.4m over three years.

Hospital chief executive Lyn Hill-Tout has agreed to attend tomorrow's meeting with Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson also in attendance.

Deficit

Mr Burley has drawn up a list of suggestions to increase use of the hospital site, which he says is posing an £8m annual deficit. They include providing extra GP surgeries well as renting out rooms to councils or schools.

He said: "People are understandably concerned about the future of Cannock Hospital. Closing it will be one option recommended by health watchdogs Monitor in March 2013."

"Before then we have a five month window locally to come up with an alternative solution and find options to secure the hospital's future."

"This working group is my attempt to bring together all the key stakeholders and NHS experts in one room to discuss and come up with a positive lasting solution."

"I look forward to working with all those who have agreed to take part and hearing their ideas."

Seaside fun at care home

Myster Magic aka Quentin Greatrex with Mr Punch and Joyce Rowley, aged 95

A TOUCH of the traditional English seaside came to a care home in Great Wyrley.

Deck chairs, umbrellas and a Punch & Judy show came to Lakeview Care Home in Stafford Road.

Nursery children from nearby Landywood Primary School were also invited to enjoy the event with residents. Performer Myster Magic provided entertainment with a classic Punch & Judy show.

Everyone was invited to dress up for the occasion, while inflatable beach balls and decorations were put up to give a summer feel to the fun day.

Country park in plea for helpers

VOLUNTEERS are needed for a conservation day at Chasewater Country Park next week.

The Countryside and Parks Conservation Group is spending next Wednesday (November 7) helping to clear scrub and repair the cattle fencing on areas of Chasewater's heathland.

Volunteers will spend the day felling small trees from an area of Anglesey Basin as well as repairing and strengthening the livestock fencing, in readiness for a herd of four dwarf cattle to be reintroduced to the Special Site of Scientific Interest in the spring.

Suitable

No skills are needed. Volunteers will be given full training, but must be over 18. Suitable outdoor clothes and a packed lunch or money for the cafe are recommended. Hot drinks and biscuits will be provided.

Anyone interested should Denise Deverall on 01543 308 183 or email denise.deverall@lichfieldc.gov.uk

Participants should meet by the Rangers office next to the Innovation Centre, for a 10.30am start. The event will run until 3pm

Technology firm moves

A TECHNOLOGY specialist centre has relocated to larger premises in Burntwood.

TechCare has moved from Cannock Road to a unit at Queens Drive Industrial Estate, which is four times bigger. The new centre has a trade counter and showroom on the ground floor.

The business has grown rapidly since opening four years ago and now employs four staff.

TechCare stocks products including laptops, desktop PCs, printer cartridges and toners and also has a dedicated repair area for computers, mobile phones and other electronic devices.

Christmas cards

CHRISTMAS cards will raise cash for disabled children. Cannock-based UK children's disability charity Newlife Foundation is launching six designs to aid its work with disabled and terminally ill under-19s. They are in ten-card packs, costing £1.49 and £1.99.

One-star awarded to Silsila

A NEWLY-opened curry house in Rugeley has been told to clean up its act.

The Silsila only opened in September, but council inspectors have given it just one out of five in a food safety rating.

The report on the Horse Fair restaurant found that cooked chicken was stored next to raw chicken and containers of food were not dated in the fridge.

Inspectors from Cannock Chase District Council's Environmental Health and Food Safety Team found that temperatures were not being monitored, with no working thermometer on site, and raw and cooked chicken was being stored at room temperature beside the cooking range.

Contact

It was also noted that while the standards of cleaning was satisfactory, there was no disinfectant on site.

The owners were also told not to store open ice cream in the freezer and to also provide paper towels at the wash hand basin.

The report said cleaning and disinfection of all food contact and hand contact surfaces must be improved.

Restaurant director Mish Rahman said they had another restaurant called India Red in Hednesford which had a five-star rating, and they were striving to bring it up to the same standards.

Bumblebee is talk topic

THE plight of bumblebee will be the subject of a talk at the Wolsley Centre next week.

The Staffordshire Bumblebee Conservation Trust is holding a talk called Bee Aware at The Staffordshire Wildlife Trust HQ at Wolsley Bridge near Rugeley.

It will take place on Wednesday, November 7 from 7pm. Tickets for the talk cost £4. There will also be a raffle on the night.

For details call 01889 880100.

Walk fundraiser

A CANCER patient from Rugeley who has been given the all-clear has donated £600 to the chemotherapy unit at Stafford Hospital, where he was treated. Paul Jeremy completed a 26-mile walk from Rugeley to Cannock to raise cash.

Credit union launches across the district

Councillor Gordon Alcott and volunteer Andrew Starkey at the launch

A NEW credit union has been set up in Cannock. The launch of the Fusion Credit Union means everyone who lives or works in the district can save or borrow cash.

Fusion Credit Union has been operating in Lichfield since 2005 and now, thanks to funding from Cannock Chase Council, is now offering its services across the district.

Credit Unions are not-for-profit financial co-operatives that pool members' savings to make low-cost loans to other members and are staffed entirely by volunteers. Fusion's first collection point in the district is now open in the council's main reception at the Civic Centre in Beecroft Road on Mondays between 10am and 2pm. More collection points will be available soon.

It costs just £2 to become a member of Fusion Credit Union. As well as being able to save and borrow, the credit union also has a special junior account and offers loans for home deposits and insurance. Log on to www.fusioncreditunion.co.uk for more information. Fusion is currently looking for more volunteers and is also looking for people to operate collection points, help with administration.

Email info@fusioncreditunion.co.uk or call 07972 656182.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, the council's economic development leader, said: "I'm delighted to welcome Fusion to Cannock Chase and urge volunteers to get in touch so more collection points can be opened across the district."

Injured soldier Clive picked as Poppy appeal poster boy

by Claire Fry

AS THE rubble and dust settled around him, Sapper Clive Smith realised his life would never be the same again.

Out on patrol in Afghanistan clearing roadside bombs, the soldier trod on an undetected explosive and lost both of his legs in the blast that followed.

Despite being conscious throughout the ordeal, Sapper Smith's main concern was the well-being of his comrades, who rushed to his aid as he lay bleeding in the dusty battlefield.

They helped stem the blood loss before he was evacuated from the Nahr-e Saraj district and eventually flown to Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham.

It was here, following that fateful day in October 2010, that the Hednesford war hero began his recovery.

He spent five days in critical care before being transferred to Headley Court, a rehabilitation centre in Surrey where he continues to get intensive treatment to this day.

Overcome

He also spent time at the Battle Back Centre in Lilleshall, where he became determined to overcome his injuries.

The centre, which is funded by the Royal British Legion, helps wounded, injured and sick service personnel recover. As well as emotional support and physiotherapy, the centre also offers sports and adventure activities.

"Taking part in activities like wheelchair basketball, rock climbing and bowling was great fun and really encouraged me to focus on what I could do, as opposed to what I couldn't do after injury," said 27-year-old Spr Smith. "The Battle Back Centre has given me a positive outlook which has really helped in all parts of my life."

"It's humbling to know that the centre has been created because of the public's generous support for guys like me through the Poppy Appeal."

And it was at the centre he was spotted by the RBL, which last week launched him as the official face of this year's Poppy Appeal. It was his positive and optimistic spirit which set him apart. "I am a very positive person," he says.

"My attitude is you can't look back. I am

Sapper Clive Smith, centre, of Hednesford, with his Army colleagues

The former Cannock Chase High School pupil with his parents not going to be able to invent a time machine and change it so I have to deal with the cards I have been given and take each day as it comes."

The former Chase High School student took his first tour of Afghanistan in 2008 and it was on his return that he decided to become a bomb disposal expert.

He returned to duty in the war-torn country in early October 2010 with the 33 Engineer Regiment and it was just a few days later he lost his legs on the 13th.

"I had always wanted to be in the Army or do something like that. When I was a child I used to run about the fields with friends and sticks pretending to shoot things," he recalls.

Spr Smith joined the Army after leaving a sports coaching course at Hagley Park Sports College, saying he "always fancied blowing things up".

Support

His father Steve said he was an inspiration. "Him coping so well has helped us cope," he said. "He has been so positive about it from the outset and has always said that you can't look back. So that is how we have gone along with it and shown our support as much as we can."

The retired police officer said the whole family was really proud of Clive and the work he had now done with the Poppy Appeal. Spr Smith said: "I am never going to be free of the wheelchair. But I want to be as independent as possible."

He now has his sights, once he has completed his rehabilitation, on sport. He enjoys playing wheelchair basketball and rock climbing.

"I will see what I'm good at and I would like to do Paralympic sports," he said.

RHODES

AS the US elections approach, the master of one-liners Milton Jones explained on Arthur Smith's Balham Bash (Radio 4) how close his own father came to being President of the United States. He was an undertaker on an army base. A barrack embalmer.

A READER writes: "I have a door stopper. Could it be Wedgwood?"

MORE strangely-modern lines from Downton Abbey (ITV) where Ethel the maid says: "I'll give it a go" and Matthew declares: "I've been on a steep learning curve." Coming next: on being released from prison, Mr Bates says: "Freedom, like it's wicked, innit?"

THE organiser of a bonfire party next to a pile-up on the M5 had been charged with seven counts of manslaughter. I wonder how many November 5 bonfire organisers have resigned since this story broke a few days ago.

OUR recent correspondence about people's attitudes towards folk in wheelchairs reminded me of Ron Burns of Tipton. He was an amputee diabetic with heart trouble yet he was one of the funniest natural comedians I've ever met. He died in 1999 and in the final months of his life he was forced to use a wheelchair. He noted that when he sat in it he was just 4ft 2ins tall, which inspired his bitter little poem about meeting someone he knew perfectly well but who failed to recognise him. It began: "We met this man in Bilston / Well, my daughter did. / He didn't recognise me. / They never do when you're four feet two." I dare say plenty of people in wheelchairs know the feeling.

THIS may save you a trip to the police station. A reader who was sent a copy of the Chinese-inheritance scam, featured in this column recently, took it to his local nick where the officers referred him to the website Actionfraud.Police.UK. He tells me that after filling out the Actionfraud report form, he was advised to contact his local police station, which is precisely what he had done.

I WON'T be voting in the November 15 elections for police commissioners because I don't see how scrapping a committee and replacing it with one person improves democracy. Seems I'm in good company. The former Metropolitan Police chief Lord Ian Blair declares: "I've never said this before but I actually hope people don't vote because that is the only way we are going to stop this." Could these be the first elections in Britain when it is our civic duty not to vote?

ONE reader speaks for many about police commissioners: "Has it not occurred to anyone that a person is very much easier to corrupt than a body of people?"

Police join legion for day to remember

POLICE are joining forces with the Royal British Legion for the charity's 20th annual Festival of Remembrance.

The two-day event will be held in Cannock town centre and will start with a day of activities on Saturday November 10 between 10am and 5pm. It will end with the traditional service of remembrance from 10-11am on Sunday November 11 at the cenotaph. Staffordshire police officers, along with members of the veterans' association, local youth organisations and military units will form a guard of honour at the monument that marks the town's lost heroes.

On Saturday local band and choirs including the Salvation Army will entertain people as they walk around the stalls displaying memorabilia and weapons from the recently disbanded South Staffordshire Regiment, alongside representatives of the current armed forces.

Special Sgt Rob Taylor said: "This weekend has been organised to pay tribute to our servicemen and women, past and present, and we welcome everyone to join us and show their support."

"There will be something for all the family and all proceeds raised will go to veteran charities.

"People can also drop off items for our troops - some of them don't have any family so they really appreciate receiving a pack and a note wishing them well."

There will be a collection point at the cenotaph between 10am and 5pm on Saturday for people to hand in comfort packs for serving troops.

Street choirs plan to curb boozy behaviour

STREET choirs will be used to deter boozy bad behaviour outside the pubs and clubs of Cannock and Rugeley.

Singing flash mobs will help to defuse any trouble brewing in the town centres over the festive period.

The scheme could also be rolled out to include busy bank holidays and other events that attract large crowds to nightspots. It has been launched by police and council chiefs to tackle "above average" violent crime in the areas.

The launch comes after a successful pilot last year, which saw alcohol-related crime drop by 22 per cent on the previous Christmas. Members of Chase Harmony Choir surprised revellers in Cannock and Rugeley with feel-good carols.

Impact

A singing group is yet to be approached to perform this year but is expected to be asked to cover the Christmas and New Year party season.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson said: "This scheme was very successful and very well received last year."

"You can't do this sort of thing too often as it would lose its impact, people would come to expect it if you did it every weekend."

"But we are looking at it for special occasions like

by Mark Mudie

bank holidays, when there are more people out and about than usual and a greater chance of trouble.

"I think it works because it puts people in a good mood, it also takes them by surprise and diverts them from something they shouldn't be doing."

Chase Harmony volunteered for its role last year, but a "small amount" of funding is available if chiefs decide to commission groups.

Meanwhile, a Chads Moor choir will be re-launched with a new name and image this weekend.

The St Cecilia Singers have been renamed One Accord and have adopted a modern singing style which will be showcased at their annual concert on Saturday November 31.

The 20-strong choir is being led by new musical director Chris Smith.

The re-launch concert takes place at Chads Moor Methodist Church, Cannock Road, from 7.30pm. For more information telephone 01543 491539.

Anthem created to mark care home's 18th birthday

RESIDENTS and staff at a care home in Hednesford marked their home's 18th birthday by creating their own music anthem.

ExtraCare's charitable trust's base in School Court was opened in 1994. Trust chief executive Nick Abbey visited the home last week to mark the celebration.

He was given a rendition of the anthem, which was produced as a result of a 10-week music and media project for residents with Greenwood Studio of Music and Media Company.

Wheely great gardening idea

Malcolm Fletcher from Hednesford who has invented a rotary mini garden

A PENSIONER has come up with a novel gardening feature for disabled people - and now hopes to wheel in some business.

Retired shopkeeper Malcolm Fletcher came up with the rotary mini-garden after his wife Barbara suffered arthritis and was unable to do the gardening in their Hednesford home.

Enlisting the help of his friend Graham Bird, Mr Fletcher, aged 66, of Mount Street, has now made 11 of the features, selling five of them for around £120 each.

It is a 5ft high Ferris wheel with plant troughs which the user can move and use easily from a wheelchair. Mrs Fletcher, 74, said: "It's a great feature for anyone who cannot move freely around their garden, and once it is blooming, it looks fabulous."

She added: "We decided to make some more and sell them and they have proved popular. We would like someone to either help us make some more or buy the idea off us."

Mrs Fletcher has grown vegetables including carrots, radish and spring onions inside the wheel made out of welded steel.

Deadline to submit question at forums

RESIDENTS can submit questions for the next round of Cannock Chase Council's community forums.

The next date is at the Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford, on November 19, but residents have only until tomorrow (Friday) to submit a question.

The Rugeley & Brereton forum takes place on November 26 at the Rugeley town council chamber in Taylors Lane. The deadline for questions to be listed is November 9.

Anyone wishing to submit a question to November 27's Cannock forum, at the Civic Centre in Beecroft Road, must do so by November 12.

Relevant

For the December 11 Heath Hayes, Norton Canes & Rawsley meeting, issues must be raised before November 26.

The council asks for questions to be submitted in advance so the relevant officers can attend and provide detailed answers.

For more information, or to submit an agenda item, email communications@cannockchasedc.gov.uk or call 01543 462621. Alternatively, see www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/forums

40s themed fish supper

The 40s high fish and chip supper is being held at Longford Social Club, Wellington Drive, Cannock, from 7.30pm on Friday, November 9.

Phil Chase will compere the night, with tickets priced at £8.50, available from April on 01543 684805.

Money raised by the Chase Community Fund goes towards helping local voluntary groups.

A FIRE spread to a row of conifers after a bonfire at a garden in Cannock. Firefighters were called to Surrey Close, on the Rumer Hill estate, at just before midnight on Saturday (October 27) to ensure the blaze didn't spread.

Fireworks to feature at town's switch-on

A FIREWORKS spectacular will mark Cannock's Christmas lights switch-on after organisers' funding fears were overcome.

Concerns were raised over the annual showpiece after Cannock's town centre lottery was axed.

Proceeds from the lottery had been used to bankroll the switch-on. But organisers have now confirmed that fireworks, a laser show and Santa's grotto for this year's event on November 16.

Natal Chapman, who runs Cannock Shopping Centre and oversaw the Lotto scheme before it was axed in May, revealed the district council had stepped in to cover the shortfall.

Laser

"A lot of people are giving their time for free, for example the guy who is doing the laser show," she said. "We have also had some council funding, in particular for the fireworks."

The monthly lottery was dropped after it failed to attract enough support from traders. The cashpot was split between the winner and town centre projects.

Last year, Britain's Got Talent star Jean Martin offered to perform and switch on the lights for free.

Meeting of businesses

BUSINESSWOMEN from across the Chase will meet up at a networking event today (Thursday) to raise their profiles and meet like-minded professionals.

A meeting of the W.L.D networking group is being held at Chetwynd Arms, Upper Way, Upper Longdon from 1-3pm.

Women will learn how to move their businesses forward and generate more sales.

Tickets cost £15 and include lunch and refreshments.

For more information telephone 01543 899695.

A CHIMNEY fire at a farmhouse in Penkridge was tackled by crews using an overhead platform.

Firefighters were called to the four-storey property in Otherton Lane at around 3pm on Sunday (October 28).

Former council chief executive dies aged 88

Bernard Rastall - top job

A FORMER chief executive of Cannock Chase District Council has died after a long illness. Bernard Rastall was 88.

Mr Rastall worked for the authority for 39 years and was awarded an MBE for services to local government.

Mr Rastall died last Wednesday, October 24, at Ashcroft Hollow Nursing Home in Huntington. His funeral service takes place tomorrow (Friday) at St Luke's Church in Cannock, at midday, followed by a private cremation at Stafford. Instead of flowers, mourners are being asked to make donations to St Giles Hospice, Cannock Chase Branch RAF Association and Cannock and District Branch Multiple Sclerosis Society. In tributes, Mr Rastall was described as a "tremendous servant" to the community.

He held the top job from 1971 until 1988, after serving his time as deputy chief executive at the former Cannock Urban District Council.

Born and raised in Tamworth and a pupil at Queen Elizabeth Grammar School, he joined the RAF in 1943 and had just completed his training as a bomb aimer when the Second World War ended. He was demobbed to Yarnton in Oxfordshire where he met his future wife Ruth at an RAF dance.

Mr Rastall retired as president and welfare officer for the Cannock Royal Air Force Association just four years ago and had also been chairman and president of the Hednesford music festival and the local Probus club. He and Ruth, also 88, lived at Remington Drive and had been married for 64 years. They had two children, Keith, aged 62, and Lorna, 59, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He was awarded his MBE, presented by the Queen, in 1984.

Council leader George Adamson said: "He was a tremendous servant to Cannock Chase, which is reflected in the fact he spent all his retirement in the area."

Councillor Frank Allen, who joined the council in 1976, called him a "gentleman of the first order". "I cannot speak highly enough of Bernard," he added.

Road safety plea is made by mother of young victim

A MOTHER whose young son died after being knocked off his scooter by a security van outside a supermarket has launched a petition to stop speeding along the "dangerous" road.

Michelle Clifton's seven-year-old boy Mitchell died after being hit at the car park entrance to the Co-Op, Landywood Lane, Cheslyn Hay, on October 3.

Schoolboy Mitchell Clifton

Mrs Clifton wants traffic-calming measures and her online petition called "A Mother's Plea, please help stop another tragedy happening in our village", has more than 100 signatures.

It calls for support after the life was claimed of "my darling son Mitchell", who was "a young boy with a promising future".

The petition says traffic-calming measures are desperately needed along the stretch of road - especially at the Co-Op store entrance.

It adds there have been several minor collisions on the road and on the junction on the high street, due to heavy traffic and poor visibility.

Village

More needed to be done to help pedestrians cross the entrance safely and Landywood Lane, she said.

Mrs Clifton said it was always busy as it was a main entry and exit road to the village. She added most motorists were travelling far too fast and that the entrance to the Co-Op was particularly dangerous.

Cheslyn Hay Primary School pupil Mitchell was hit by a white Mercedes Sprinter security van, driven by a 45-year-old man from Cheshire.

Residents say they had concerns for some time.

Council bosses say they will look at what measures might be introduced.

Elderly's artistic talents go on show

ARTWORK produced by residents of a Rugeley care home went on display last week at the town's library.

The exhibition at Rugeley Library in Anson Street features silk paintings produced by elderly tenants of Horse Fair Care Home.

This is the second time this year that pieces from the home have been featured at the gallery. It was decided that due to the popularity of a decoupage event in April that the pensioners should make a return to put on a display of their paintings.

Myth

The artists age from 60 all the way up to 94 years old.

Jane Lane, the home's recreation and leisure organiser hopes this kind of creative work will dispel the myth that care homes are all about bingo and television.

She said: "We are extremely proud of the work that has been produced by the residents and wanted to share it with the community."

The work went on show last Wednesday (October 24) and will remain on display until Saturday (November 3).

NEWS in brief

The Happy Tots nursery in Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown was transformed with orange and black streamers, jack-o-lanterns, bats, witches, ghosts and skeletons.

Activities included singing songs, dressing up, creepy colouring, apple bobbing, eating quivering jelly and baking special biscuits.

Yesterday (Wednesday), the nursery was hosting a special Halloween party and 'spooky' dinner, while children and staff were dressing up to play special games.

Pupils in pink for cancer campaign

PUPILS and staff at a Cannock school organised a range of activities in aid of the Breast Cancer campaign.

Everyone at Norton Canes High were encouraged to don pink clothing or transform themselves into a superhero.

They were asked to pay £1 to go towards the charity last Friday while other activities included a baking sale and opening a nail bar.

Seven-mile walk by ramble group

A RAMBLING group is hoping to help people keep warm, fit and healthy.

The Mid-Staffs Ramblers group is inviting new members to join them on Sunday, November 4 for a seven-mile walk through fields and country lanes around Bradley.

The walk starts at Penkridge Methodist Church at 9am.

Phone firm announces plans for town move

MOBILE phone firm Phones 4u has become the latest to announce plans for a new store at Hednesford's multi-million pound development.

The high street retailer will open a shop in the town's new Victoria Shopping Park, part of a £50million transformation of the town centre.

It has joined names including Costa Coffee, Pets Corner and Lloyds Pharmacy, as well as an 80,000 sq ft Tesco superstore.

Stephen Pearce, director of property and retail projects at Phones 4u, said: 'We're delighted to be opening a new store at the Victoria Shopping Park and playing a role in the regeneration of Hednesford.'

Christmas

"We look forward to bringing Phones 4u to the town as well as creating a number of new jobs for local people."

The shopping park is under construction and will open in time for Christmas trading, generating more than 600 jobs.

It is the final phase of St. Modwen's 10-acre regeneration of the town centre.

by Will Ackermann

The first phase, Chase Gateway, includes the redevelopment of the area fronting Market Street, Rugeley Road and Victoria Street and the new-build of a Hollywood Bingo Club and retail units.

Councillor Diane Todd, Cannock Chase Council's town centre regeneration leader, said: "The transformation of Hednesford is quickly taking shape, creating a new heart for the area as well as hundreds of jobs."

Construction began on the comprehensive town centre scheme in April 2011 after developer St Modwen was granted planning approval by Cannock Chase Council.

Puppeteer Derek Wharton with Hammerwich WI president Barbara Renshaw and other members

A PUPPETEER put on a colourful show for members of five Women's Institute groups. Guest speaker Derek Wharton entertained a group of 70 women with his pantomime version of Sleeping Beauty.

WI groups from Lichfield, Wall, Boney Hay, Chasetown and Hammerwich met for the Three Spires Group at Hammerwich Women's Institute Hall.

Hammerwich WI president Barbara Renshaw was also called on to help during the show.

Group co-ordinator Rose Morgan said: "He kept us laughing all the way through. It was hilarious. He has collected puppets from all over the world."

March to War Memorial

OLD soldiers and dignitaries will take part in a Remembrance Sunday march to Hednesford's War Memorial. They will meet at St Peter's Church at 9.30am on Sunday, November 11, before forming outside the church for a march to the memorial for an 11am service. From Rugeley Road, they will march into Market Street, Anglesey Street and to the ex-servicemen's club. A short service at the Door War plaque will follow before food and entertainment in the club.

Sneak peek at town's mining monument

Heritage group members and town and district councillors view the sculpture at Peter Walker's studio

MEMBERS of the Burntwood Heritage Group joined town and district councillors for a sneak peek at a mining monument last week.

Representatives visited the studio of the artwork's sculptor Peter Walker.

The miner and pony will be installed at Sankeys Corner early next year. This gathering was the first chance to see the 7ft bronze statue which depicts a miner leaving the pit with his pony.

The sculpture was created in clay and will now be sent off to the foundry for casting into bronze, which takes around 3-5 months to produce. It is hoped a big celebration will be held at Sankeys Corner at the time of its unveiling which will be announced in early 2013.

The project has been developed thanks to the hard work and dedication of local people to fund a monument to those who worked in the coal industry. It continues to seek funding.

Ron Bradbury of Scamp, Sankeys Corner Arts Mining Project, said: "I, and the other committee members, was filled with pride that the result of years of fundraising and harassing any one who would listen has almost come to fruition. A final push for funds is now on."

Important

Town clerk Mary Danby said: "I was amazed by the beauty and craftsmanship of the sculpture and believe it will become a focal point for residents and visitors alike when it is installed next year."

Sculptor Mr Walker grew up in Burntwood. He said: "For me this is perhaps the most important artwork I will make. It is for the town I grew up in and for the people I know."

"It is of great importance that the history of this town isn't forgotten."

Sculptor Peter Walker works on the statue

Honour of freedom was well deserved

I HAD the honour of being present on October 13 when the Freedom of Hednesford was presented to the Hednesford Branch of the Staffordshire Regimental Association.

What a brilliant day it was. The members of the association were great.

They were smart and marched proudly and were a credit to Hednesford.

Hednesford Town Council conferred the honour on the association but, the honour was all ours as it could not have been given to more worthy recipients.

People turned out in their droves to support the Staffordshire and even the weather was kind to us.

Well done the Staffordshire Regimental Association and long may you be a part of our community.

Yes, village is stuck in a time-warp

HOW I agree with P G Holmes in The Chronicle of October 18 – Penkridge is in a time-warp. I've lived here for more than 40 years and would welcome a new supermarket and petrol station. Why do our antiquated councillors dismiss and condemn progress?

I'm sure they don't all do their main shop at the Co-Op. I know of three local shop owners who don't, I don't, and from the endless flow of supermarket home delivery vans around the area the majority of residents don't. Visit these shops on a Saturday afternoon and the place is like a 'ghost town' – even market visitors give them a miss. They've regrettably become a convenience rather than a necessity.

As for new development being detrimental to existing shops – it's a pity the baker shop didn't consider this when it first opened in Penkridge. At that time there were three other establishments trading in bread/cakes/sandwiches – eventually they shut down.

As for increasing traffic, etc, we seem to endure it when motorway traffic is diverted onto the A449. We also put up with congestion and double parking at lunch times on Crown Bridge and we also bear the congestion and queuing caused by the market!

Perhaps our councillors' energy would be better channelled into ridding our pavements of dog mess – there's a worthwhile project.

Town and future high on agenda

COUNCILLOR Willis-Croft is a very enthusiastic young councillor, but his attack on Burntwood's Conservative councillors (Letters, October 11), indicates he is sadly lacking in local political history and research.

Until 1976, Burntwood had elected only Labour councillors, whose ambition was to build sufficient homes to warrant a rural district council with autonomous powers, hence the massive housing development and lack of amenities.

The 1973 Local Government Act and the ensuing district council status scuttled the tide of development and left Burntwood playing catch-up, from which it is still struggling to address in terms of amenities. Only now under Conservative control at Lichfield District is our town and its future being placed up the agenda – a success solely down to the efforts of Burntwood's Conservative councillors.

Unit recommended to those called back

DURING the next few weeks the ladies of Penkridge and surrounding areas will be invited to have a routine mammogram. These people may have read recently of some rather negative comments about the Breast Care Unit at Stafford Hospital.

We, as members of the Pinfold Pink Support Group – based in Penkridge – would like to reassure any patients who may be called back to the hospital, that the treatment members of the group received from the unit was excellent.

We found all the surgeons, nurses, and other supporting staff to be most helpful, kind and always available to explain treatments.

The nurses go well beyond their line of duty and we recommend the unit to everyone called back to it.

Why bother working as jobless so well paid?

I NOTE in the report on the jailing for four months of the unemployed yob who attacked the Sheffield Wednesday goalkeeper that on the day of the offence he was able to afford his train ticket to the match plus cans of lager, seven to 10 pints of cider and three quarters of a litre of vodka, all consumed before kickoff.

Quite obviously being unemployed is very well paid. Why did I bother to work for 40 years?

Fine grounding for a well-balanced life

CALLING all mums and dads. Why not get your son to join the Boys Brigade? They will receive a very warm welcome.

Your son, aged between five and 18, can compete in the Boys Brigade Badge Scheme, which covers interesting activities carried out each week and access the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme in addition to the national and Wolverhampton & Shropshire Battalion competitions throughout the school year.

The BB recognises that while success is important, the way you achieve that success is even more so. The development of young people into responsible and caring adults, with a Christian message of serving others, is a key aspect of BB life. BB life also includes the increased social skills, confidence and maturity that are vital to young people. The Brigade is a fine grounding, for a well-balanced life.

The BB has been a part of our lives for over 30 years. For details of your nearest Brigade, visit www.thebb-ws.co.uk

Care home given green light despite objections

Residents Jean and Fred Titley are unhappy at the care home plan

A NEW care home is being built in Cannock creating 40 jobs. The 41-bed home will be sited next to St Chad's Church in Chadsmoor.

The care home will be built on empty land between the church and a car park on the corner of Cannock Road and Moss Street and will specialise in the care of dementia sufferers.

Despite objections from some residents, planning chiefs last week gave unanimous approval to the scheme.

Neighbours had raised concerns the building would obscure the neighbouring church and overlook their homes.

At a meeting of Cannock Chase planning committee, planning agent and architect Richard Taylor revealed 40 jobs would be created. He added: "I believe the area has suffered from quite a lot of anti-social behaviour and by allowing this to go ahead in the form we want to, hopefully that will no longer be an issue."

Location

The building would front Cannock Road with two-storey houses, with a surgery behind.

Councillor Alan Pearson said: "This is really needed in the district and will bring employment into the area. A very unsightly area will be tidied up."

Residents had sent letters of objection to Cannock Chase Council, criticising the location, although they said they were not against the idea of a care home in the neighbourhood.

Fred Titley, aged 70, said the church, which is celebrating its 120th year, would be dwarfed by the care home building.

Moderate ramble

THE Chase & District Ramblers head off on a moderate nine-mile walk at Meir, north Staffordshire, this weekend. The meeting point on Sunday, November 4, is Hednesford rail station car park, Anglesey Street for a prompt 9am departure. Call 01889 586168 for details.

A year after the market's opening in November 1973, shoppers raise a glass while others cut into a cake

More festivities from November 1973 as shoppers are pictured drinking and eating cake inside the market hall

Traders' Association chairman Len Potts officially opens the market

Market on calendar as traders celebrate 40th

by Charlotte Lilley

CANNOCK Market will celebrate its 40th birthday this month by offering its customers the chance to win a theatre trip to London.

Cannock Chase Council chairman, Bob Todd, Town Crier Peter Taunton and ex-traders from the 70s including 91-year-old market superintendent Harold Pritchard, will all mark the milestone on Friday, November 23.

The market opened in 1972 and has been popular with shoppers ever since, selling assorted fabric and material, ladies nightwear, books, curtains and men's jackets and work wear.

It has been home to people of all trades including Louise Rushton who worked on the ladies and children's wear for 30 years, and Ray Oakley who worked for 24 years as a flower and vegetable stall holder. Margaret Lavender has been trading on the market for the whole 40 years.

She said: "I'm one of the long-standing traders that have been here since the market opened.

"We do all we can to help people and they know they can trust us because we've been here for so long. I can't imagine Cannock without the market."

Stories circulate around the stalls about the characters that used to work there including Charles Hales, a butcher on the market for 44 years who became famous in Tokyo in the 70s after winning an egg and sherry competition, swallowing 52 eggs in under a minute.

After its grand opening, there was a six-year waiting list for a stall. Anybody who opened up late after 9am had their locks cut off and shutters put up and the stand would be given to another trader on the list. Now empty lots are now visible thanks to the advent of bigger retail names in the town.

Julie Last took over her father's curtain stall 23 years ago when he retired after 50 years, aged 76.

Rely

She said: "We still get a lot of customers but some people don't know we're here so we rely on word of mouth."

The celebrations begin at 9am. Walton Hall school choir will be singing and a National Market Traders Federation representative will greet everyone on the stalls.

Mrs Lavender added: "It's going to be a really fun day and I hope a lot of people will come."

BONEY HAY AND CHASE TERRACE WI

THE 1950s/60s social evening was well supported and many ladies dressed in appropriate attire.

The background music came from the same decades and during the evening jacket potatoes, with various fillings were served, followed by apple pie or crumble with custard. To finish off the meeting there was a short quiz.

The next meeting was in complete contrast as Pam Moore, a professional beauty therapist was the demonstrator for the evening.

Pam qualified in 1974, specialising in care for problem skins. Although having a very busy schedule, she still finds time to help with relaxation and skin care for patients in St. Giles Hospice. All the products she uses are natural. Mineral salts are obtained from the Dead Sea and all creams and lotions are gentle, mild with a light perfume.

Having procured a 'guinea pig' from the audience, she went on to demonstrate how to apply make-up correctly.

Pam also brought for sale a selection of small bags and hand-painted scarves, together with an assortment of cleansers and creams which proved extremely popular.

Pam was thanked in the usual way by an appreciative audience.

Why have a conservatory when you can have an Orangery from £9,999

Imagine an elegant and comfortable room, a warm and bright space that is the envy of all. This is what an orangery will bring to your home. Relax in style on warm summer days and enjoy a feeling of comfort and warmth on long winter evenings.

Orangeries provide a unique multi-purpose living space for every home, from kitchen extension, living room, dining room or playroom. Our orangery uses the market leading Global roof with a well-engineered internal pel met framework, which is then plastered, giving the roof a perimeter ceiling all the way round. Within this perimeter roof you can choose to add down lighters or audio speakers, giving you the opportunity to personalise your new room.

The gutter line of the roof of the orangery is hidden from view by a decorative cornice that rises above the flat section and this cornice conceals the orangery gutter for a more attractive external appearance. A fully glazed conservatory might not be to everyone's taste, therefore the combination of traditionally built features and glazing of an orangery creates a more substantial and interesting effect.

Owners are thankful for life-saving dog donors

Head nurse Nicky Smith with dog blood donor Vincent

Veterinary surgeon Lydia Baddley with Maggimae

DOG owners have been reaping the rewards of a blood bank which has helped to save their pets' lives.

With one unit of blood helping to save the lives of up to four other dogs, scores of pets were taken along to a donor session at Great Wyrley's 387 Veterinary Centre last weekend.

One of the people attending last Saturday's session was 53-year-old Gail Wright, who has been giving blood herself since the age of 18. She has 12 dogs, and regularly fosters those which find themselves without a home.

Gail took along her bull mastiff cross Maggimae, who is 18 months, for just the second time, along with American bulldog cross-staffies Vincent and RV who are both aged 16 months.

The caterer from Great Wyrley said: "Being a blood donor makes you all the more aware of the life-saving value of giving blood, and as a dog lover it is great to know that my dogs are also helping to save lives."

Grateful

Pet Blood Bank UK was launched in 2007 and recently celebrated reaching its 4,000th donor milestone.

One man who will always be grateful to the pet blood bank is Robin Ward, whose dog Sparticus was taken ill in February and diagnosed with severe anaemia. She was given three blood transfusions, and a week later came home. Robin said: "She's here and she's happy, that's all that matters."

Katrina Wilkinson of Pet Blood Bank UK said: "Taking your dog to donate will help ensure blood is available for those who may need it."

To register as blood donors, dogs need to be fit and healthy, have a good temperament, and be aged between one and eight. They must weigh no more than 4st (25kg) and be up to date with their vaccinations, not be on any medication, and must never have travelled outside the UK. Sweet Pea recovers

Nurse Michael Leachman, with the cat at Pool House Veterinary Hospital

A CAT used up two of its nine lives after being hit twice by cars on a busy Heath Hayes road.

The battered moggy was picked up by a good-hearted passer-by and taken to Pool House Veterinary Hospital in Lichfield for treatment.

She spent 24 hours in intensive care but pulled through and has now fully recovered from her ordeal.

The pretty tortoiseshell, nicknamed Sweet Pea by staff, was struck by cars near an island on Lichfield Road in Heath Hayes on October 18, suffering a collapsed lung. Deputy head nurse Danielle Pountain said: "She's very lucky that a kind soul stopped to help her. Ideally we would love her owners to come forward to claim her."

"She was wearing a collar so definitely belongs to someone, possibly from the nearby housing estate."

Inquiries should be made to 01543 262464.

Crackdown is launched on drunken behaviour

POLICE and council chiefs have launched a crackdown on drinkers blighting Cannock town centre following complaints from worried residents.

Floods of concerns have been raised about groups congregating in Church Street and causing nuisance. CCTV is now being used to catch the culprits.

Benches have been removed from shelters where the yobs gather and extra signs have been put up warning people alcohol could be confiscated under the terms of a banning order.

Anyone who refuses to co-operate with police could face arrest.

Issues

Cannock Chase District Council's crime boss Councillor Mike Holder said: "We've worked with the police to tackle the issues of anti-social behaviour at this location in Cannock town centre."

"It is not acceptable for a small minority of people to cause a real nuisance for shoppers and visitors."

He added police would take action if people were

by Mark Mudie

seen drinking in public in Cannock town centre.

Town centre regeneration leader Councillor Diane Todd said she hoped the crackdown sent "a clear message" that drinking and anti-social behaviour would be stamped out.

Inspe Chris Ellerton said the problems in the town centre did not reflect trends across the rest of the district.

"We are continuing to achieve considerable reductions in anti-social behaviour year on year across the district," he said.

"Initiatives like this display our commitment to making the town centre even safer for local residents and visitors."

Teeth Whitening

Your smile is important. It's one of the first things you notice when you meet someone. A whiter, brighter smile is beautiful - it can help you feel better about yourself and make a memorable impression

Whitening can get your smile looking its best. Non-professional procedures and clinically unproven teeth whitening tips can often lead to unsatisfactory results, you should look for a whitening procedure that is:

- Fast and convenient
- Long lasting
- Low sensitivity
- Proven to be safe and effective
- Performed by a Dental Professional

Invisalign

Facial Fillers & Wrinkle Relaxing treatments

Since the late 1980's, Facial Fillers and Wrinkle Relaxing Injections have been part of a major revolution in non-surgical cosmetic treatments becoming one of the most popular treatments available in the fight against the signs of ageing today. The results of treatment are a natural, relaxed and more youthful appearance which will last for several months.

Wrinkle relaxing treatments are commonly used to treat areas in the upper part of the face such as frown lines between the eyes, forehead lines and lines around the eyes (Crow's feet).

Lichfield Family Dental can now offer you the opportunity to have Facial Fillers from £295 and Wrinkle Relaxing treatment from £250 Please call us to find out more information.

Beauty of a show for fans of fashion

CLOTHES Show Live is the UK's largest and most talked-about fashion and beauty event. This year, it is preparing to stage the most fashionable, inspirational and interactive show in its 24-year history.

And the Chronicle series has teamed up with organisers to give 40 readers the chance to win a pair of show tickets for Monday, December 10. At the heart of British fashion, Clothes Show Live 2012, in association with Suzuki, will take place from December 7-11 at Birmingham's NEC celebrating fashion at its finest.

The event will feature catwalk shows, designer guests, celebrities, makeovers, champagne bars, hundreds of fashion and beauty brands to shop from as well as the spectacular 5,500-seat Fashion Theatre showcasing the best of British design. Fronting this year's show is British model Daisy Lowe, star of campaigns for the likes of Chanel, Vivienne Westwood and Topshop.

This year the daily fashion shows in the Suzuki Fashion Theatre are being presented by stylist to the stars Grace Woodward and Brit fashion designer of the moment, Henry Holland.

Students

Also new this year is the incorporation of Britain and Ireland's Next Top Model Live in the Style Boutique, featuring even more fashion, catwalk shows, Model Master Class sessions and celebrity appearances – the ultimate girls' day out.

DJ and model Zara Martin has been announced as the host of the Diet Coke Image Catwalk showcasing High Street collections, final-year collections from fashion students and pieces from designers of the future. The Style Studio will host talks by some of the country's leading stylists, workshops and career seminars. Hundreds of fashion and beauty brands will set up pop-up shops in halls within the show. Tickets are available at www.clotheshowlive.com

Payback team in churchyard work

A TEAM of people are working to improve a Burntwood churchyard. Lichfield District Council and Staffordshire & West Midlands Probation Trust are working together on the project through the Community Payback initiative.

The team, of between five and nine people, started work at St John's Community church in October. Work has so far involved cutting back footpaths and trimming hedgerows. The team will also paint the entrance gates.

Cliff Thompson, placement officer for Lichfield Community Payback, said: "This project is a great example of the type of work we get involved in, and I am delighted the area is already looking better."

Software firm is flying high with Angry Birds deal

Brand manager Alan Wild and PA Charis Poynton at Focus Multimedia in Rugeley

A FLOURISHING Rugeley software firm has secured an exclusive multi-million-pound deal to distribute the PC game tipped to top this year's Christmas sales chart.

Focus Multimedia, in Rugeley, has won sole UK rights for Angry Birds Star Wars and has also been chosen to circulate the franchise in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Greece and Cyprus.

Bosses at the firm in Lea Hall Enterprise Park, Wheelhouse Road say the deal will allow them to take on extra staff to boost the company's 30-strong payroll.

Focus has been commissioned by game makers Rovio Entertainment and Lucasfilm. The game will hit the shelves on November 16 in time for the festive gift rush.

Galaxy

Launched as an addictive mobile phone app, Angry Birds games have been downloaded hundreds of millions of times.

The eagerly-anticipated Angry Birds Star Wars version will see action moved to a galaxy far, far away, with characters based on Luke Skywalker, Princess Leia and Han Solo doing catapult-based battle with Darth Vader and the rest of the Empire.

by Mark Mudie

Brand manager Alan Wild said: "This is a very sizeable deal for us."

"There have been something like one billion downloads of Angry Birds globally and the Star Wars game is widely expected to be this year's Christmas number one."

"We are the sole distributor in the UK and have also got the contract for territories across the world."

Focus has also secured distribution rights for a PC version of Angry Birds spin-off Bad Piggies, which went on sale last week.

The Angry Birds deal could create a handful of new posts, he added.

Arrest as drugs found

A 26-YEAR-old man has been arrested after a drugs warrant was executed at a home in Longford Road, Cannock. Officers found a cannabis factory – of around 100 plants – and also seized property including around £6,000 in cash, a van and two motorbikes. The warrant was executed at 10am on Thursday October 25, and the man was arrested in the Cannock area the following morning. The man, from Cannock, was arrested on suspicion of possessing drugs with intent to supply and released on police bail pending further inquiries.

Hundreds face assault course challenge

James Macfarlane, Natasha Newman, Zoe Brand, Samantha Thompson, Emily Burns and Mark Sinclair, friends from Cannock Wood, take part in the assault course challenge at Weston Park

HUNDREDS of participants faced mud, smoke, water, obstacles, dirt, hills, and more mud in an Army-style assault course.

The Major Series Midlands challenge was staged in the grounds of Weston Park stately home, Staffordshire, on Saturday, with more than 600 people taking on the gruelling test of stamina. The event, run by British Military Fitness, had obstacles every kilometre of the 5km and 10km courses. John Bradley, 43, of Wellington, won the 'minor' 5km event. Sarah King, head of events for British Military Fitness, said: "This is our third event at Weston Park now, and it's been getting bigger and bigger each time. "By this time next year we hope to have around 1,500 entrants."

Shugborough jobs blow

HALF of the front-line staff at the historic Shugborough Hall are to be axed in a cost-cutting measure.

Staffordshire County Council has also announced the estate is to close an extra day a week.

Shocked workers were called into a meeting by the authority on Monday to hear the full extent of the cuts, which are hoped to save £148,000 of £246,000 needed in total.

Jobs will go and the estate will be closed on a Tuesday, traditionally the quietest day of the week. The season will also be shortened by nine days. Councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for culture and community, said it was "to secure the long-term future of Shugborough".

Saddened

He said the council had consulted with other tourist attractions and the National Trust, which owns the property, to work out the best ways to save money and run it. "We are saddened to have to take certain steps," he said. "But Shugborough is so precious to us that we want to maintain and protect it for years to come."

Staff re-structuring will see the number of workers drop from 66 to 32 in the visitor service sector. A four-week consultation period where employees can give feedback has begun and will end on November 30. The changes will come into force in March.

Last year, it emerged there was a £1.4 million deficit in 2010 due to increasing operational costs.

Santa Dash will raise vital funds for Newlife

RESIDENTS in Cannock are being urged to sign up to take part in this year's Santa Dash.

The one-mile run will take place on Saturday, December 15 at Cannock Leisure Centre and will finish at Bank Bar and Lounge in Wolverhampton Road.

All money raised will go towards Newlife, which provides specialised equipment for disabled children.

Each participant must raise a minimum of £30 sponsorship. To register or for more information visit www.newlifecharity.co.uk/event

Jack back at theatre

Children Marisha Kalinski, Emma Pearson and Graham Tudor, principal of theatre school TrEAD, back; with James Wolstenholme at the front who plays Jack REHEARSALS are in full swing for this year's pantomime production of Jack and the Beanstalk at Rugeley's Rose Theatre.

Professional theatre school TrEAD (Training in Expressive Arts and Drama) will be putting on the show for the second year running after a successful debut in 2011.

Principal Graham Tudor and James Wolstenholme, who plays Jack, visited Littleton Green Community School.

Graham's wife Helen Noble, who played Abby Davies in Hollyoaks, will star in the panto, which runs from December 10 to 15. Her former co-star Barney Clevely, who played Will Davies in the soap, will also feature.

Mr Tudor said it would be an enjoyable performance and they were excited to be having the TV stars with them.

He added: "The performances will also feature over 60 students in total from our TrEAD in Stoke and Cannock, which my wife Helen and I run on Monday and Tuesday evenings respectively."

Flats plan lodged for ex-garage site

AN EYESORE former garage in Cannock could be demolished and replaced with two apartment blocks.

Owners Craig and Watts Holdings have applied to turn the derelict former Hi-Q Tyreservices site in Mill Street into two housing blocks containing a total of 27 flats.

A planning applications has been submitted to Cannock Chase Council. The proposals include pulling down the existing buildings and building two blocks of apartments with car parking provided.

The proposal follows the scrapping of a plan by regional health bosses last year to turn the site into a health centre, which was met with disappointment by the local community.

The proposal is being 'fully supported' by nearby residents who claim the empty buildings have in recent years been turned into a drugs den, increasing crime in the neighbourhood.

Retired scaffolder Frank Arnold, aged 67, of Devon Road, said: "We want the site knocked down as soon as possible."

Concerned

"The place has been empty for many, many years and has been taken over by venom who have turned it into a drugs den."

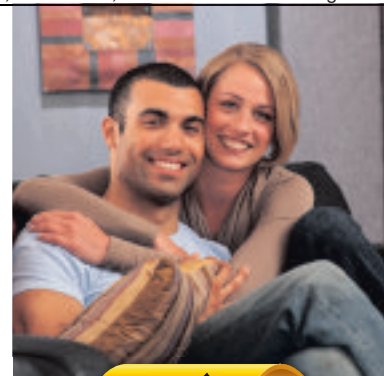

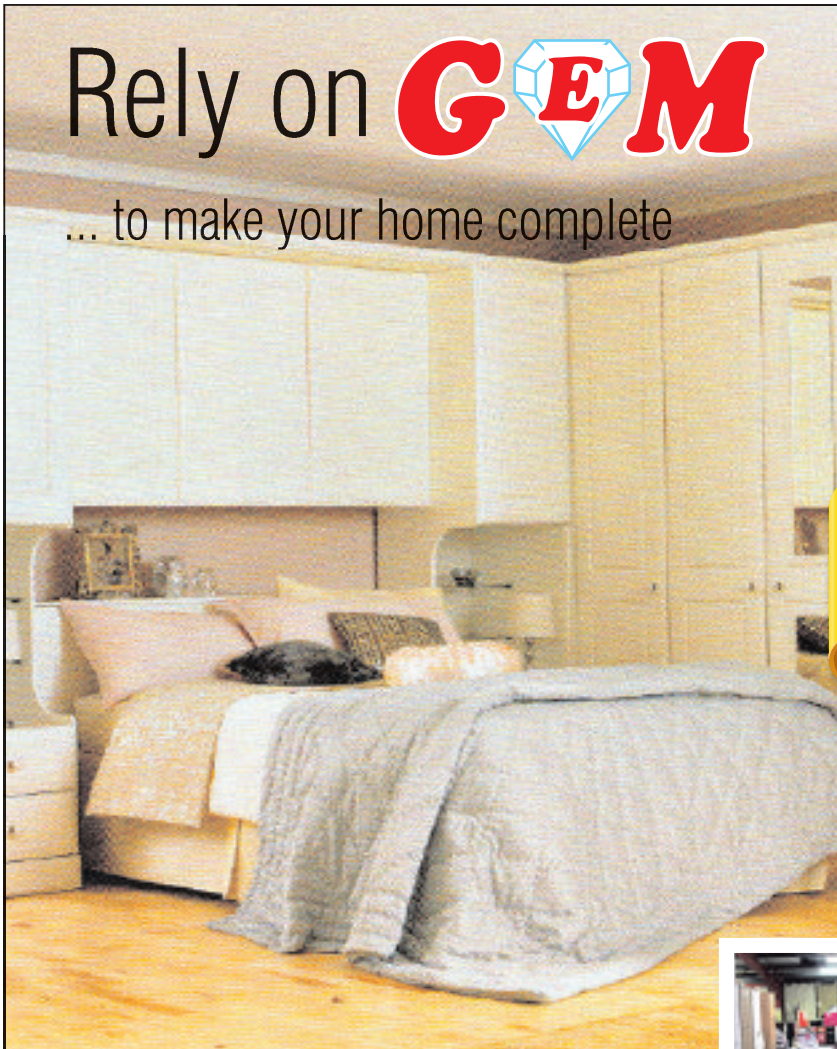

"Many of us round here are concerned about it and are desperate for it to be replaced - it is a disgrace."

Health body public meeting

THE FIRST governing body of Cannock Chase Clinical Commissioning Group is to be held in public. Family doctors who are to take over the running of the NHS in Cannock Chase will hold their first board meeting in public on November 8. The GP-led Cannock Chase Clinical Commissioning Group's meeting will be held at the Conference Room, Cannock Chase Hospital, from 3pm. People are asked to confirm attendance by emailing Katie.woods@northstaffs.nhs.uk or calling 01785 221043.

What can God do for you?

WHAT IS THE MEANING AND PURPOSE OF LIFE?

For many people their purpose in life is for material gain, to be successful, wealthy, or even famous - but where do all these goals and aspirations end?

We are told in the Bible that our life is a vapour that appears for a little time then vanishes away. God has given us the most valuable thing we possess - the gift of life. Life is short. We have the choice of how to use it. If we choose to serve God and learn to live aright, then God can give real purpose, meaning and fulfilment to our lives.

Love still in the air for golden couple

Golden wedding couple Vin and Ann Lycett, of Rugeley
 A COUPLE who describe their marriage as "the perfect love story" have celebrated their golden wedding.

Vin and Ann Lycett from Rugeley said they were more in love today than when they started courting. Mr and Mrs Lycett, aged 76 and 75, met at a mutual friend's house a year after Mr Lycett left the Army in 1956.

He popped the question 12 months later in a Birmingham park and they tied the knot at St Peter's Church in Hednesford. They travelled to honeymoon in Porthmadog, Wales on Mr Lycett's motorbike. The couple have two children, Veronica Grice, 47, and Simon Lycett, 43, along with one grandchild, Jodie Grice.

Vin and Ann Lycett on their wedding day in 1962

Mrs Lycett worked as a lampshade maker while Mr Lycett was a painter and decorator in Rugeley.

Father and son in spree

A FATHER and son targeted a string of scrap metal firms, stealing hundreds of pounds worth of goods.

Michael and Toby Arrowsmith struck at a company in Hednesford during the six-week crimewave, stealing metal during early morning raids.

Goods worth more than £1,600 worth were stolen in four raids, during which the pair used a flat-bed truck to load up their stolen items.

At a hearing at Wolverhampton Crown Court, Michael, aged 42, was jailed for a year while his son Toby, 21, was handed a suspended prison term.

Prosecutor Mrs Sati Ruck told the hearing that Aldridge metal manufacturers J.L. Float was targeted between 5.55am and 6.30am on April 15. They took £160 in metal. On May 6, Euroseal on the Tamebridge Industrial Estate in Perry Barr had £400 worth of metal beams stolen while on May 17, the pair stole £125 in goods from Magma Energy Services in Hednesford.

On May 23, SPB Group in Aldridge was targeted at 5.45am, with 26 metal plates worth £1,000 stolen. Michael, of no fixed address, and Toby, of Harden Road, Coalpool, were convicted of three counts of theft and admitted one further theft charge.

Mr Nicholas Berry, for Michael, said his client had completed a bricklaying course while in prison. He said Toby had an apprenticeship planned but that Michael had been a bad influence.

The court heard Michael was serving a 38-month prison term for wounding. He was given an additional 12-months in prison. Father-of-one Toby, who had a previous conviction for theft, was given 10-months, suspended for 18.

Bonfire advice on keeping pets safe

DOG owners from Cannock Chase are being urged to give their pets a stress-free Bonfire Night.

Cannock Chase Council is advising that dogs be kept inside, in a safe place close to the centre of the house, with the radio on and windows, doors and curtains closed to muffle the bangs of fireworks.

Owners should not fuss over their dogs, the authority has warned, because they will be less able to cope alone.

Councillor Janos Toth, Cannock Chase Council environment leader, said: "The time around Bonfire Night can be a really stressful time for dogs, as

Campaign

"I urge dog owners to think carefully about how they can make life as stress-free as possible for their pets, as well as making sure that their dogs don't stray."

The advice comes as part of the council's new campaign for responsible dog ownership in the run-up to Christmas.

It follows an announcement that all strays collected by its dog warden contractor will now be microchipped before they are reunited with their owner or new owner. Strays picked up in the district are taken by dog warden contractor Noah's Ark to Swanpit Kennels in Gnosall, near Stafford.

Boxing club is renamed after stalwart member

Arthur Deakin with former WBC World Super-Middleweight champion Richie Woodhall

Rugeley Police & Community Boxing Club, in Wellington Road, has been renamed the Arthur Deakin Building

A RUGELEY boxing club has renamed its building in memory of one of its longest-standing members.

Arthur Deakin spent 26 years as vice president of the Rugeley Police and Community Boxing Club, on Wellington Drive, up until his death in June.

His family collected money for the club at his funeral and presented a cheque for £520 to committee member Nigel Cooper.

Jonathon Byrne, a boxer at the club, said: "It's what he would have wanted.

by Will Ackermann

"Despite his failing health, Arthur continued to attend regular committee meetings and was relentless in pursuing funding and support for the club."

"He was always a recognisable figure sat at ringside in support of the local lads," he added.

Mr Deakin was just 10-years-old when he fell in love with the sport in 1930, two years after he moved to Rugeley from Birmingham.

Mr Byrne, aged 36, said that, by his own admission, Mr Deakin had "lost a lot of ground educationally" and "could never make top class".

However, on the off chance he was asked to box at the Rugeley Carnival and continued to take part each year until he left school.

Cheeky

Head coach Ian Lear, aged 48, said: "He will be remembered very fondly. He was a lovely bloke with a cheeky smile. He was always having a laugh."

"He devoted so many years of his life to boxing and did a huge amount for

FOCUS ON PENKRIDGE

REHEARSALS are under way for a Christmas musical to be held in Penkridge next month.

Some 50 members of St Michaels Church are preparing to stage the Roger Jones musical, The Inn Crowd and there are still places left for anyone who wants to be a part of the show.

Organiser Carole French, said: "We have some really strong singers this year and there are still places if people want to join in. We will be rehearsing on Saturday at 4.30pm at St Michaels so I would encourage anyone to come along."

"This is a really lively musical and there is even some audience participation. This will be our fifth musical and we are having so much fun putting it on."

The show will be held at St Michaels Church on December 22 at 7.30pm and 23 at 10.30am. For more details, call 01785 713342.

Bag bargain at book sale

A BARGAIN book sale is to be held in Penkridge.

Peace Memorial Hall, Pinfold Lane, will host the event on Saturday November 24 at 10am.

All money raised goes towards St James Church, Acton Trussell, and All Saints Church, Bednall.

Anyone who would like to donate books should telephone 01785 715628.

Pigeon racing trophy goes for more than £6k at sale

Penkridge as seen from the air

On this spectacular view of Penkridge, you can see the tennis courts and recreation ground next to Monckton Recreation Centre in the foreground. If you would like a copy of this picture - or any other photograph featured in this publication - please contact our photo re-orders department at Express & Star, 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES, telephone 01902 313131, ext 4360

A UNIQUE pigeon racing trophy has flown away at auction for more than £6,000.

A special section dedicated to pigeon memorabilia was part of the first-ever September Fine Art Auction at Cuttlestones in Penkridge.

Eight lots ranging from medals and badges to fobs, prize cards and tins all featured. The star lot was a hallmarked nine-carat gold trophy by Warning & Gillow, presented for the Grand National Pigeon Race from Marennes Pons & Bordeaux on July 14, 1914, which went for £6,372.

The auction had to be extended over two days as there was so many interesting and exquisite items of vintage clothing, jewellery, watches, ceramics and art.

Collection

One of the main crowd-pleasures was a platinum three-stone claw-set 2.84 carat diamond ring, on which the hammer fell at £5,192. Ceramics also sold well, with an entire collection of Birks-decorated Minton pâte-sur-pâte pieces selling for £17,287.

MD and head auctioneer Ben Gamble said: "We're really pleased to have achieved such great prices across the catalogue."

"Added to the fact that just one week before this sale we celebrated our highest ever-grossing Specialist Collectors' Auction, and it's proof that all the hard work is paying off. We put a huge amount of work into marketing both our services and the individual sales, targeting niche audiences to get the very best results for our vendors.

"We now sell to a truly global audience, with a significant proportion of bids coming from overseas buyers either live via the internet, on the phone lines or via commission bids."

Cuttlestones' next Fine Art and Antiques auction will take place on December 6 and 7. Visit www.cuttlestones.co.uk for more information.

Chance to celebrate Victorian Christmas

THE annual Victorian Christmas Fayre takes place in Penkridge at the end of this month.

It takes place on Friday November 30 on the site of Penkridge Market.

Anne Geoghegan, chairman of the business association, said: "Everyone will be in Victorian fancy dress so there will be a great atmosphere. Last year we had just under 6,000 people attend. This year we think there will be even more."

"We have a stilt walker and fire-eater and Marshbrook school choir will be on stage to sing Christmas carols and Father Christmas will also be in his sleigh so it should be a really good night."

Visitors can do their Christmas shopping at more than 100 stalls selling arts and crafts, food and drink.

The market will be open from 5-9pm. Admission and parking are free.

Bridal fair at village hotel

BRIDES and grooms-to-be are invited to a wedding fair in Penkridge this month.

Hatherton House Hotel, Pinfold Lane, will host the event on Sunday November 18 from 11am until 4pm.

Wedding specialists will be on hand to answer questions and there will be a range of exhibits.

For more information call 01785 712459.

Suction offers another solution

A CUTTING-EDGE development to help resolve the stability problems faced by thousands of denture wearers is now available. Denturist Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng) says the invention has the potential to improve the life quality of those experiencing long-term problems with ill-fitting teeth. The Ultra Suction teeth are held in place by tiny valve-operated suction devices built into the dentures.

All on 4 is now here

One of the most advanced restorative options for denture wearers is available in Wolverhampton and Dudley. An implant system called All on 4 offers a permanently retained full arch of teeth in a day.

Call us for more details.

Finding a traditional answer

The work of the Denture Clinic has found satisfied customers from as far as Spain, the Isle of Skye, Anglesey and the south coast of England. Its hand-crafted dentures, made in laboratories on the premises, are known for their natural look, says clinic principal Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng). "I remain passionate about resolving problems for denture wearers and for many, quality, traditional dentures can bring about hugely effective results. We always aim to exceed expectations and strive for best clinical outcomes."

Ann's transformation

ANN flashes an engaging smile and declares confidently: "I'm looking to join a choir - I love singing."

The retired general nurse, midwife and public health worker from the Midlands, continues: "It's one of the things I want to do again, having been involved in a Finding the Voice course."

"It's such a joyous pastime and what's more, it gives me pleasure while hopefully putting something back into life for others." It is hard to imagine Ann shying away from anything - a consummate, articulate professional, who embraces life and opportunity with an infectious enthusiasm.

But trouble with her teeth began to erode her positive approach and she admits her self-image took a dive. I became too self-conscious of my teeth."

She adds: "Family get-togethers over meals became awkward for me because my teeth were not functional, but it was at my mother's 90th birthday party it really came home to me. 'What's the matter with your teeth?'

"She said 'they're all misshapen'. It was true.

"My mother said what no-one else would say. It's true also, teeth can be life-damaging." Ann, who once worked in Australia before meeting her husband and returning to the UK, had suffered periodontal (gum) disease of her top crown.

Some teeth had become loose and twisted while other, more mobile teeth, had to be extracted. Her sister was a patient with Wolverhampton implantologist Jonathon Pugh BDS MSc, principal dentist at Parkdale Dental Clinic on Tettenhall Road, and she persuaded her to have a consultation with him.

Mr Pugh recalls: "Sadly, by this time,

Ann's gum disease was aggressive and far too advanced so we didn't have the option to treat her gum disease. We had to extract all of her upper teeth and then place four implants to support an implant-retained denture."

Ann's case was then referred to Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS (Eng) of the Denture Clinic, which is also based at the Parkdale practice, and he prescribed and made the prosthetic. Mr Burchell, who also has a clinic in North Street, Dudley, says: "With the implant-retained top denture we could guarantee stabilisation, giving Ann the smile she wanted and excellent functionality too."

Ann, a volunteer support worker at a hospice, adds: "I cannot speak highly enough of both clinics which provided excellent treatment for me."

"My implant-retained dentures have made a great improvement to my appearance and wellbeing."

"My teeth look and feel just like my own. It's been a good investment and offers a long-term solution."

David's stunning landscape is picture perfect

Winner David Byrne

A KEEN Cannock snapper has been named as the Landscape Photographer of the Year.

David Byrne was announced as the overall winner as well as winning the Classic View Category. The photograph also had two commended images.

Founded by UK's leading landscape photographer Charlie Waite, the awards are now in their sixth year and celebrate the beauty and diversity of British landscapes.

Mr Byrne's dramatic black and white image of the island of Lindisfarne Castle, with unusual 'fishing boat' sheds in the foreground, impressed the judges to land the top prize of £10,000.

Mr Byrne said: "I had no expectations of winning. I took the picture because I love monochrome landscapes and Britain has some of the best landscapes you can find. Getting in the final was brilliant but to win was out of this world."

The winning picture, and other commended entries are reprinted in the coffee table book: Landscape Photographer of the Year: Collection 6.

Awards founder Charlie Waite said: "This year's entries have once again met the very high standard set when Landscape Photographer of the Year was launched in 2007."

Wonderful

Over the last six years, photographers have taken their cameras and set off in pursuit of images that remind us of the wonderful country that we are so fortunate to live in."

The 2012 exhibition of winning and commended entries will be held at the National Theatre in London from November 12 until January 12. The 2011 exhibition was visited by 70,000 people.

NEWS
in briefBritish Legion in planting honour

A TREE-planting ceremony is being held in Penkridge by the Royal British Legion in memory of two former members who died last year.

The service, in honour of Percy Lovell and Mike Bailey, will be held at the new cemetery in Pinfold Lane on Saturday, November 17, at 10am.

Flower display at village church

A FLOWER exhibition is taking place in Cheslyn Hay tonight (Thursday). Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley Flower Club is holding the event, from 7.30pm at Salem Church, in High Street.

There will be a tombola, raffle and cake stall. Admission is £5.

Barbecue served at fireworks night

A BARBECUE, Irish coffee and refreshments are all on offer at a bonfire and fireworks night at a Hednesford church.

Family tickets to Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Uxbridge Street are £5. It takes place from 6pm on Monday, November 5.

Ribbon cut on country's first rural academy

Staffordshire County Council leader Philip Atkins cuts the ribbon to declare the Rural Enterprise Academy open, with executive principal Graham Morley and pupils Caprice Turner and Oliver Griffiths

THE country's first Rural Enterprise Academy has been officially opened near Penkridge.

The school offers agricultural and environmental studies to a first intake of 90 Year 10 and 30 Year 12 pupils.

The academy is initially being housed within existing buildings at South Staffordshire College's Rodbaston campus. A new building is expected to open by April next year. It is among the country's second wave of free schools and has already been praised by Prime Minister David Cameron.

Proud

County council leader Philip Atkins cut the ribbon at the new school, which was described by Mr Cameron as "giving children the best start in life".

Executive principal Graham Morley said: "We're proud that the vision and planning of South Staffordshire

College, the National Farmers Union and global environmental company Veolia have created a school worthy of national recognition.

"Students will go forward from here to become the next generation of entrepreneurs and professionals that the economy needs and employers crave."

Councillor Atkins added: "The academy will provide an enjoyable education experience as well as the skills needed for our vital food production and environment."

Spotlight shines bright on X Factor Nikki

Blood Brothers, Hippodrome, Birmingham

THIS gritty production about a pair of estranged twins has both comical and dark elements that wonderfully complement each other from start to end.

The well-selected cast brings the tale to life but it is fair to say the spotlight shone brightest on Tamworth's Nikki Evans of X Factor fame who filled the role of Mrs Johnstone exceptionally well and her voice carried superbly.

Set in Liverpool, the plot focuses on two brothers separated at birth that end up on the opposite side of the tracks, one a middle class school boy, the other a working class miscreant. Their chance encounter and love of local girl Linda (Olivia Sloyan) drives them both to madness and ruin.

The role of Wet Wet Wet's Marti Pellow, as the harbinger of doom suits him to a Tee. His voice has lost none of its magic, but at times lacked clarity possibly due to the Scouse accent.

Brothers Eddie (Jordan Bird) and Mickey (Sean Jones) each go their separate ways but never truly stray from the friendship they share.

Tom Mason

Versatile Lakeman heads queue for musical talent

Seth Lakeman, Town Hall, Birmingham

WHEN they handed out musical talent not only was Seth Lakeman at the front of the queue but he also went back for seconds.

He came on to the thumping beat of More than Money then linked straight into Blacksmith's Prayer using the bouzouki, picking up the tempo with his distinctive voice coming clear over the instruments.

All-rounder Lakeman was joined by guest singer Lisbee Stainton for the ballad The Sender from his Barrel House album.

With a change of instrument, one of at least 10 throughout the concert, Lakeman pulled out Solomon Browne. Showing even more versatility for Apple of his Eye, a song about cider making, he took to his fiddle and played pizzicato.

There was another change of instrument for the ballad White Hare which really showed the depth and clarity of his voice and the group moved to Blood Red Sky which had a Latin undertone.

He moved back to the fiddle for The Hurlers and made another change for the Take No Rogues, which featured a banging solo from the double bass.

Lakeman did his signature fiddle solo to end the set with his machine gun movements building up to a Vivaldi Four Seasons-style crescendo.

Danny Farragher

Seth Lakeman - musical talents

Joan shows some emotion on home soil

Joan Armatrading Symphony Hall, Birmingham

IT WAS an understated entrance for Joan Armatrading - on her home turf - singing Down To Zero as her opener with her distinctive voice filling the Symphony Hall even before she could be seen.

She played both acoustic and electric guitar with consummate ease and can also hammer out riffs like a seasoned rock star. She also funkied it up with Show Some Emotion which moved smoothly into Single Life.

Joan used her wonderfully deep voice for another popular hit All The Way From America.

The hall lapped up everything the Emmy Award winner threw at them and even though it's now more than 30 years old she couldn't really get away without playing her biggest success

Love and Affection. She brought a mellower sound in the title track of her new album Starlight and showed real emotion in the haunting ballad The Weakness In Me.

It took Me Myself and I to get the crowd dancing in the aisles and she gave them what they wanted, finishing with Drop The Pilot and the last track on her new album, Summer Kisses.

Garage redevelopment under way

A GARAGE group has begun work on a £600,000 redevelopment at its site in Cannock.

The work by Brindley Garages Group at its two acre Brincars Nissan/Mitsubishi site on the A5, will incorporate a new 4,000 sq ft Nissan corporate showroom with service reception, a customer waiting area and new offices. The 12 bay workshop is also undergoing extensive modernisation.

The dealership, one of Brindley Garages Group's oldest and most successful, employs 55 staff and also houses the Brindley Group bodyshop.

Bruce Round, managing director of the site for more than 30 of the 44 years he has worked for the company, is retiring at the end of this year. He will be succeeded by Peterjohn Durrell, who moves from Brindley's Wolverhampton Volvo site.

Adrian Frearson, previously with William A Lewis, replaces Peterjohn as dealer principal of the Volvo dealership. Brindley Group now comprises 12 franchised sites across the West Midlands with a turnover of around £150 million a year.

With its head office now in Penn Road, in Wolverhampton city centre, Brindley, founded in Codsall in 1931, sells more than 11,000 new and used cars a year and employs more than 300 people in total.

Franchise

The group, which this year was ranked 17th among the top 100 businesses based in the Black Country, includes dealerships representing Chevrolet, Citroen, Fiat, Honda, Kia, Nissan, Mazda, Mitsubishi, Saab, Vauxhall and Citroen.

The latest franchise to open was Brindley Mazda in West Street, Wolverhampton. Brindley also has a dedicated group fleet department supplying businesses with vehicles from most of the leading manufacturers.

Brindley Garages Group has started work on a £600,000 redevelopment of its A5 site

Salon order over wages

A BURNWOOD salon has been ordered to pay one of its workers national minimum wage arrears.

HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) obtained a county court judgement against Burnwood-based DJ & Ward Ltd, a hairdressing and beauty business after it had failed to pay wage arrears of £1,125.

The company was charged with failing to meet its legal obligations as an employer. It was also ordered to pay £182 costs to Revenue & Customs.

Michelle Wyer from HMRC, said: "DJ & Ward Ltd failed to respond to the evidence presented and we are pleased the court has made this judgement."

EATING OUT

New venture is already filling gap in the market

Mirchi, Turnberry Road, Bloxwich
AT the age of 28, Maz Hoque already has 12 years experience of working in Indian restaurants and has now decided to branch out on his own.

Maz has launched Mirchi in a prime location in Turnberry Road, Bloxwich. The estate on which it stands has been crying out for a restaurant. Since it was built, householders have had to venture in the town or further afield to get their curry feast. There is a pub, the One Man And His Dog, as well as a supermarket and a chip shop, but Maz now looks to have filled that gap in the market.

His words to us on leaving were: "Wish me luck." However, he will not need it.

Less than a month after opening, the 60-seat Mirchi already seems to be creating a name for itself. Maz is well-known to locals, having worked at the nearby Zeera, so many familiar faces are coming to try out his new venture.

Word of mouth appears to be spreading very quickly as we arrived to find a very busy restaurant on a midweek night.

Varied

Much of its early success is down to the pleasantness of the staff and friendly atmosphere but the proof is in the pudding, as the saying goes.

Obviously, poppadoms were the order of the day, but we also tried chicken shashliq for starters, an ideal appetiser. There is a varied menu, from house recommendations, tandoori fusions, sea food dishes and chef's exclusives, as well as the more traditional fare.

I was recommended the salmon tawa biran with baby potatoes, cherry tomatoes, garlic and chilli. It needed no second invitation and in turn, I advocate it to anyone else. Sharon went for the sweet and creamy makkon chicken, which also went down a treat. We followed with desserts from the extensive list.

Mirchi is open from 5.30pm on Sunday to Thursday and from 5pm on Friday and Saturday. Diners are asked to take their own alcoholic drinks. Call 01922 401199 or visit www.mirchi-bloxwich.co.uk

Christmas card plea to youngsters by MP

YOUNG Chase residents are being asked to submit pictures to feature on MP Aidan Burley's Christmas cards. The winning design will be turned into a card that will be sent to local businesses, schools and even 10 Downing Street. This year's theme is Cannock Chase at Christmas and the winner will receive their name, age and school printed on the inside front page of the card, a framed copy of their winning card with certificate and a special present from the House of Commons.

Cards must be A5 and portrait sized and must be submitted by November 9 to the MP's Help Zone, 6 High Green Court, Newhall Street, Cannock, WS11 1GR.

Ready for the craic

Colman Whitelaw, piper Gary Lees and Michael Clancey get ready for the Irish hooly at St Mary's Social Club

A CANNOCK club will be up for the craic as it gets set to host an Irish charity evening this weekend. St Mary's Catholic Community Centre and Social Club is hosting a St Mary's Irish Hooly night on Saturday November 3 from 7.30pm.

Entertainment on the night will include including Irish pipers, dancers and music from The Wild Irish. Money raised will go to St Mary's Church funds and SIFA Fireside, a Birmingham based charity tackling homelessness and alcohol misuse.

Michael Clancey, spokesman for St Mary's Catholic Community Centre and Social Club, said: "It should be a fantastic evening. People will be able to tuck into a traditional Irish meal and then enjoy the entertainment."

"The Guinness will be in full flow and we are hoping everyone who comes along on the night will be up for the craic."

Tickets includes a three course Irish meal and cost £12.95. They are available from the club on 01543 579364.

First patient to use new scanner

A GREAT Wyrley patient has become the first to use Cannock Chase Hospital's state-of-the-art MRI machine.

The expensive Siemens 3T open-bore scanner was used to scan Gaynor Grinnell for a cervical spine condition.

The revolutionary machine enables complex imaging to be undertaken with increased resolution with shorter scan times.

The scanner is only one of a handful of 3T systems in the UK. It represents a significant investment by the Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust at the Brunswick Road hospital.

Trust chief executive Lyn Hill Tout said: "We are delighted that the new scanner will benefit patients such as Gaynor."

"The decision to replace our previous 1.5T scanner highlights the Trust's commitment to ensuring that Cannock Chase Hospital continues to provide the highest levels of care for our patients and creates a centre of diagnostic excellence within the region."

David Loasby, Business Development Director of Alliance Medical, said: "This is the first 3T scanner Alliance Medical has installed, so we are pleased to see that patients at Cannock are already benefitting."

Delays to opening of DFS

THE opening of a £5.8million DFS store in Cannock has been delayed. The shop was expected to open this week ready for the Christmas rush. However signs erected on the side of the building, off the A5 at Longford Island, say: "We're just getting comfy - opening December." The building appears all but complete to drivers passing the two-acre plot, with DFS branding installed this week. Around 30 jobs are expected to be created at the new site with another unknown firm also expected to be part of the same retail development once it is finished.

Claire Cope of Chase Terrace with daughter Gracie, aged one, and Bella the rescue dog from Cyprus

AN animal lover from Chase Terrace helped to rescue a dog from Cyprus and is appealing to others to follow suit. Claire Cope rescued her dog Bella through an animal sanctuary called Cyprus Pride House, which is now struggling for funding.

The charity was set up by British couple June and Michael Smoker in 2002 when they moved out there and saw how many homeless animals there were.

It is now being closed down after June left her job to run the re-homing centre full-time and Michael lost his job. They are left with a number of animals who still need loving homes - and Claire, aged 30 wants to help them. She said: "They have been so helpful to me for getting Bella."

Supporters looking to help the sanctuary can visit www.cypriuspridehouse.com

Addict who stole from his mother avoids jail

A DRUG addict who stole more than £6,000 of his mother's savings to fund his drug habit has narrowly escaped an immediate jail term.

Wayne Orchard took his mother's bank card and over a period of months took out £6,615 to pay off drug dealers, Cannock magistrates court heard.

The 26-year-old was only discovered after his mother Deborah Capewell could not get any more money out of the cash machine in September.

Mr Giles Rowden, prosecuting, said she immediately suspected it was her son, and confronted him. He admitted taking her savings to fund his cocaine habit, and then handed himself into the police.

Payments

Mr Rowden said it was a "considerable breach of trust" and reminded magistrates they were only able to grant up to £5,000 in compensation.

At a previous hearing, Orchard, of Broadmeadow Lane, Great Wyrley, admitted theft by finding between July and September.

Mr Neil Gerrity, defending, said Orchard had fallen in with the wrong crowd since losing his job. He told the court when Orchard was unable to keep up the payments for his drugs, he got into difficulties. He said both he and his family was threatened, which is why he took from his mother.

"The remorse is genuine," he said, adding he had already started paying his mother back.

Chair of the magistrates Mr Martin Jupp said it was a "very serious offence".

Orchard was given a 15-week sentence which was suspended for 18 months, with an 18 month supervision requirement.

He was also ordered to complete a drug rehabilitation course, pay £5,000 in compensation and £85 costs.

Poppy Appeal launched

THE annual Poppy Appeal for Great Wyrley has been launched. The village's Royal British Legion branch is preparing for the Remembrance Service on November 11. The parade will gather at 10am at the Scout Headquarters on Walsall Road, and march up to the memorial gardens where doves of peace will be released. At 2.30pm there will be a short service of Remembrance at Great Wyrley Cemetery. Crosses will be placed on the graves of the fallen from the Second World War and of late British Legion members.

Curtain up on stage shows

TWO well-known productions are being performed at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre this month.

Chadsmoor Choral Society presents the much-loved CS tale The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe from next Wednesday to Saturday (November 7 to 10) at 7.30pm each night.

For tickets, call Steve Thornhill on 07980 756602 or Albert Hargreaves on 01889 575203.

Michael Cooney's riotous farce Cash On Delivery follows. St Luke's Drama Society is presenting the show from November 15 to 17. It centres on Eric Swan, who has pocketed a fortune from fraudulent DSS claims. When the inspector arrives, mayhem follows – as do the undertaker, psychiatrist, a corpse, a cross-dressing lodger and a rebellious washing machine. Tickets are £9 or £7 concessions.

Call Alex Dzielog on 07846 735293.

Switching heavy metal to comedy

EX-heavy metal drummer, turned comedian Stephen Hughes has embarked on his second UK tour.

A former member of Mortal Sin, he will be performing at The Public in West Bromwich on Saturday (November 3) and the following night at Wolverhampton's Civic Hall before a date at Birmingham's Glee Club on November 25.

Son of rock and pop legend joins tribute to late father

ROLAN Bolan, the son of T.Rex star Marc Bolan and soul singer Gloria Jones, will be joining the top tribute act to his father, T.Rextasy, in concert at Bilston's Robin 2 venue on Saturday night.

Bolan junior was brought up in Los Angeles and the concert, celebrating Marc Bolan's 65th birthday, marks a rare UK appearance by the 37-year-old singer and songwriter. His glam rock star father was killed in a car accident in September 1977, aged 29.

EastEnders star is now a merry wife of Windsor

SOAP legend Anita Dobson, still most famous as 1980s icon Angie Watts, the wronged wife of Dirty Den in EastEnders, has joined the Royal Shakespeare Company for their latest production in Stratford-upon-Avon.

After winning acclaim for her performances in several plays, the Stepney-born actress has been cast as the gossiping Mistress Quickly in Shakespeare's comedy The Merry Wives of Windsor.

The play was due to open this week, after previews were cancelled due to technical problems, and continues in repertoire at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre until January 12. See www.rsc.org.uk.

During the 1970s Bolan, as leader of T.Rex and solo, had a string of hits and revolutionised the music scene alongside David Bowie and Roxy Music.

His hits included Ride A White Swan, Get It On, Hot Love, Metal Guru, Jeeperster, Telegram Sam, 20th Century Boy, I Love To Boogie and Children of the Revolution.

The legacy is continued by T.Rextasy fronted by Bolan soundalike Danielz, who have been gigging around the world for 20 years – a lot longer than T.Rex did.

Rolan Bolan will be performing his own songs and some of his father's hits alongside T.Rextasy, live on stage from 8.30pm.

Tickets are available in advance from the Mount Pleasant venue for £12 (door £13). Call 01902 401211.

Kate Valentine as Musetta in Welsh National Opera's production of La boheme, being staged at Birmingham Hippodrome next week, picture by Catherine Ashmore

New opera season has La boheme

WELSH National Opera return to Birmingham Hippodrome next week with their critically-acclaimed new production of La boheme.

Their four-day visit will also include performances of Handel's oratorio Jephtha and Così fan tutte transferred to an English seaside resort.

This version of Puccini's La boheme is set in early 1900s Paris and features Alex Vicens as Rodolfo, Giselle Allen as Mimi and Kate Valentine as Musetta. It is staged on November 8 and 10.

Mozart's Così fan tutte is updated to a seaside resort in the 1960s in the version by Ben Davis featuring Elizabeth Watts and Marie Flavin. It's on November 9.

Tenor Robert Murray makes his WNO debut as Jephtha, set in war ravaged 1940s Europe, on Wednesday, November 7.

An audience with Froggie

THEATREGOERS can enjoy an audience with Raymond Froggatt at Cannock's prince of Wales Centre this month.

Known as 'Froggie' to his legion of fans – who even clutch frogs and wave green scarves, the former pipe lagger appears at the Church Street venue on Thursday, November 22, with curtain up at 7.30pm.

Froggie's career began when spent his evenings singing in pubs and secretly writing poetry in his spare time. Illness held him back, but after making a recovery, he formed The Monopoly and has since gone to appear in sell-out concerts both at home and abroad. His current tour coincides with the launch of a new album.

Tickets are £16 and available from the Church Street venue's box office on 01543 578762.

Green Day tribute in Tackeroo date

TO COINCIDE with the release of three brand new Green Day albums, Uno, Dos, Tre, the UK's number one tribute band Green Bay will be playing at The Tackeroo in Hednesford tomorrow night (Friday).

Support on the night will come from Wolverhampton band Flatline Stereo who will be promoting their new album Rock And Roll, Punk And Soul. The show starts at 9pm and admission is £5.

Homeland
Channel 4, 9pm

Admit it – you thought you'd have to wait to the end of the second season for someone to realise war hero-turned-politician Brody was in league with terrorists. Instead, only two episodes into the new season, Saul had found the recording of Brody's confession, Carrie was vindicated, and viewers realised they had no real idea where Homeland was going next. So, prepare to be back on the edge of the sofa, as this week Brody is back in prison – only this time it's on American soil, and he presumably won't have an adorable, tragic child to babysit.

Revolver, Channel 5, 9pm

A gambler endures a seven-year stint in solitary confinement after being set up by his deranged and dangerous former boss, a malevolent casino-owner who also murdered his sister-in-law. On release he plans to exact a fitting revenge and sets out to bankrupt the villain, with the help of two enigmatic loan sharks. Guy Ritchie's crime drama, with Jason Statham, Ray Liotta, Vincent Pastore, Terence Maynard and Andre Benjamin. (2005)

Tuesday

Lunacy, Channel 4, 1.05am

A man plagued by horrific nightmares of going mad is travelling home from his mother's funeral when an aristocrat offers him a place to stay for the night. He is soon dragged into a disturbing ritual and faces being "cured" of his dreams by being sent to an asylum where the patients' delusions are given free rein. Satirical horror, starring Pavel Liska and Jan Trška. In Czech. (2005)

Wednesday

The Ring, BBC1, 11.15pm

A journalist investigates several teenage deaths, which are linked to a cursed videotape and the rumour that anyone who watches it will die a week later. Her growing obsession with the tape endangers herself and her family – and to avoid the predicted fate, she has just seven days to find out where the recording came from. Gore Verbinski's remake of the Japanese supernatural horror, starring Naomi Watts, Martin Henderson and Brian Cox. (2002)

The Ring, Wednesday, BBC1, 11.15pm

Thursday

The Inbetweeners Movie, Channel 4, 9pm

Awkward teenagers Simon, Will, Jay and Neil plan a holiday to the Greek island of Crete after they finish their exams, hoping to experience drink, sex and debauchery beyond their wildest dreams. However, things do not quite work out as planned. Comedy based on the TV series, with Joe Thomas, Simon Bird, James Buckley, Blake Harrison, Emily Head, Anthony Head, Lydia Rose Bewley and Laura Haddock. (2011)

Friday

Dave, ITV1, 10.35pm

A mild-mannered lookalike is asked to step in to impersonate the US president, who is recovering from a stroke. However, he soon realises that in addition to affairs of state, he also has to handle matters of the heart, bringing happiness back into the life of the disillusioned First Lady. Comedy, starring Kevin Kline, Sigourney Weaver, Frank Langella, Ben Kingsley, Ving Rhames and Kevin Dunn. (1993)

Pick of the Week

Gabriel's political drama mirrors real-life events

Politicians haven't been flavour of the month for, well, rather a few months now... which makes them a brilliant focus for a brand new drama.

Very loosely based on Chris Mullins' A Very British Coup, Secret State stars Gabriel Byrne as Tom Dawkins who, as deputy prime minister, decides to take on the American Petrochemical company Petroflex after a devastating accident on British soil.

But it's not going to be easy for him. As a man who believes in transparency and open government, he's got his work cut out in tackling vested interests as he goes about the task of finding out the truth behind the accident and getting justice for the families affected.

When the prime minister dies in suspicious circumstances, he's up against heavyweights Ros Yelland and Felix Durrell for the top job – but it's clear neither of his opponents have the victims' best interests at heart in their campaign.

Screen veteran that he is, Byrne is no stranger to gritty roles. You only have to cast your mind back to 2003's Vanity Fair (in which he starred opposite Reese Witherspoon), and more recently his role in In Treatment (for which he won a Golden Globe), to see that this is a man clearly up for a challenge.

But does he feel that the storyline in this is a little too close to home in a country where the government faces no end of cynicism at the present time?

"It sounds like we were imitating the headlines, but actually one of the problems of doing a contemporary thriller is that you have to race to beat the headlines."

"The major incident that happens in this that gives rise to the story is a huge petrochemical explosion in a small town in Northern England, where they're developing a drone fuel."

"Just a week before we finished it, there was a story in the paper about the development of nuclear-powered drones, and a probable scenario where what we've come to regard now as conventional warfare will be obsolete – so tanks, guns, regiments, all that stuff, would be replaced by the possibility of a drone that can fly at jet speeds over continents with a nuclear payload."

However, the actor has no doubts about this drama's success. He explains: "I think the function of a really good political thriller is not providing the answers, but to raise questions."

"And that's why I believe these kinds of films are important, because you come in with the really big ideas on the back of a gripping story."

"One of the things that's interesting about this drama is that we're talking about a politician who speaks the truth, a man of integrity who stands up to the status quo."

One thing's for certain; you'll need to put your brain in to gear – while this isn't going to be relaxed viewing, well done Channel 4 on another promising debate-provoking drama.

Gabriel Byrne stars in Secret State, Friday, Channel 4, 10pm

Best of the Rest

Food Unwrapped, Channel 4, 8.30pm

The nights are growing colder – despite our determination to wait, we've had the heating on for weeks – and nothing makes us feel even more cosy than a big, plate of steaming hot tucker. But don't eat it while you're watching this, for goodness sake. This is the last episode of the eye-opening series which has enlightened us as to what really goes into our favourite foods. Matt Tebbutt finds himself in Sweden, and asks, while many smoked fish specialists use traditional smoking chimneys to rack up fish like haddock, how do they smoke products such as sausages, crisps and cheese?

Monroe

ITV1, 9pm

Great ITV medical dramas are few and far between, so considering how watchable this series has been, let's hope a third is in the pipeline. Alas, this is the last in the current series, and there's no shortage of drama for the Gabriel and the team. He throws a stag party for Nick at his flat, joined by Gillespie, Bradley and Jill, but the celebrations are cut short when a traffic accident brings a slew of new patients to St Matthew's. The cast includes Sarah Parish, Tom Riley and Neil Pearson.

Tuesday

Heston's Fantastical Food, Channel 4, 9pm

Heston Blumenthal is back, and once more he'll be tapping into his youth for inspiration. He'll be hoping to bring back the wonder and excitement of childhood food memories and flavours on a monumental scale by super-sizing all manner of treats. The world's biggest 99 Flake and a record-breaking bag of Hula Hoops are on the menu. First up however is the good old breakfast, and he's not doing things by half. Aside from the world's largest boiled egg, he wants to dish up a massive bowl of cereal and the mother of all full Englishes.

Wednesday

Dallas

Channel 5, 9pm

Back in the day, Southfork Ranch may have been owned by oil tycoons, but strangely they could only afford one phone and wire coat hangers. If only JR, Bobby and the rest of the squabbling Ewings knew they were sitting on a bubbling reservoir of black liquid gold, they could have splashed out a bit. Alas, this is the last in the current series, but there's no shortage of drama following Rebecca's violent confrontation with Tommy. She tries to forget her problems as she joins the rest of the Ewings at Bobby's bedside in hospital. Meanwhile, Vicente Cano is plagued by Federal agents just as he is preparing to give Cliff Barnes the Southfork deeds and the South American rights to Christopher's methane company.

Brazil with Michael Palin

BBC1, 9pm

Actor Michael Palin is like a dog with a bone at the moment. He's determined to see every corner of Brazil, and as we reach the third episode of his fascinating travelogue, it's clear he's not willing to leave any stone unturned. He's en route to Rio, one of the world's greatest cities, but stops off in the mineral-rich state of Minas Gerais to visit an old gold mine once owned by the British, before going to see one of the area's vast open-pit iron ore mines – something which is fuelling Brazil's economy. It's then on to Rio De Janeiro, a place which he learns is suffering greatly from armed drug gangs controlling the shanty towns.

Thursday

Emmerdale at 40

ITV1, 8.30pm

To mark Emmerdale's 40th birthday, there were two weddings in the village. The first bride, Katie, ended up wearing her wedding cake, while the second, Chas, did a runner from her own reception. For anywhere else, that would be considered something of a disaster, but as this look back over Emmerdale's history proves, the villagers are used to big days that don't exactly go to plan. Here, we get to reminisce about the time Jimmy and Nicola had to dash to make it to the church on time because they'd been in court.

Brazil with Michael Palin, Wednesday, BBC1, 9pm

Friday

Darren Brown: Fear and Faith, Channel 4, 9pm

Like Darren Brown or not, you can't deny the man has a little bit of genius in him. He's been wowing audiences for years now, and a master of his game, his tricks and mind manipulations are still the best-kept secret in entertainment. For his next trick, in another two-parter, the showman will attempt to remove people's experience of fear through the use of a powerful new drug. Yes, it's another trick that initially we'll all roll our eyes at and wait with bated breath to see what comes of it. But without a doubt we'll be thoroughly transfixed to the telly by the end of the performance, as, whatever Brown claims to be, he does put on a bloomin' good show.

Attenborough's Ark: Natural World Special BBC2, 9pm

No qualms about it, Sir David Attenborough is the kind of figurehead that will never need an introduction, his name now synonymous with some of the most weird and wonderful inhabitants of the animal kingdom. And yet the veteran broadcaster still doesn't show any signs of slowing the pace anytime soon – not bad going for a man in his mid-eighties. Well, it's been a short while since he last graced our screens, so he's back – this time, discussing the 10 most endangered animals from around the globe that he'd most like to save from extinction. First up, He explains about Darwin's frog, so special because it's the only frog in the world where the male gives birth to its young.

CONVERTING UNUSUAL INTO EXCELLENCE

Hatherton home has a price tag of £399,950

Boot & Son is handling the sale of this attractive property in Parkside Lane, Hatherton, near Cannock

A DETACHED cottage in well-stocked grounds of around a fifth of an acre and close to Cannock Chase is on the market priced at £399,950.

The property – Gantwyd Cottage in Parkside Lane, Hatherton – is situated in a sought-after Green Belt position. Standing in large gardens, the property is on the doorstep of Cannock Chase but still close to Cannock town centre.

The accommodation briefly comprises of enclosed porch, reception hall, lounge, dining room, fitted dining kitchen, utility room, cloakroom with WC, rear entrance lobby/utility/boot room, three double bedrooms, en-suite shower room and family bathroom, and also benefits from a detached double garage, extensive of road parking, well stocked gardens and oil fired central heating.

On the ground floor the lounge has a brick feature fire surround with wood beam over and slate hearth, there is a dining room, while the dining kitchen has a range of base units, laminate work surfaces, wall cupboards, inset stainless steel sink with twin bowl and mixer tap, electric hob in alcove with hood over and electric eye-level double oven. A utility room, has an inset stainless steel sink, base unit, laminate work surface, wall cupboard and plumbing for automatic washing machine, and there is a cloakroom with WC.

On the first floor bedroom one has an en-suite with shower cubicle and vanity unit with hand basin, and there are two more bedrooms and a bathroom with panelled bath, pedestal hand basin, WC and bidet.

Outside the mature private gardens have ornamental trees and shrubs, lawns, paved pathways and extensive off road parking. Call Boot & Son on 01543 505454 for more details.

Connells

New Hayes Park

An exclusive private gated development of just eight luxury homes, situated on the edge of Cannock Chase, an area of outstanding natural beauty.

The properties are situated in plots starting from 0.22 acre and there is also the opportunity for early buyers to purchase additional paddock land to the rear of the development.

Buyers able to exchange contracts early will also have the option to bespoke their properties.

Part exchange will be considered subject to terms and conditions.

Brilliant foliage that delights the walkers

WHILE some trees will retain their leaves to create a magical display of autumn colours, most will fall to the ground at the first signs of strong winds.

Some like the Scarlet Oak, acers, maples and dogwood will produce brilliant foliage colour that make walks a delight for the whole family. Bright sunny days and really cold nights will herald the start of winter.

FLOWER AND SHRUB BORDERS

The first frosts of winter will put paid to the decorative nature of dahlias, tradescantia and all manner of soft-stemmed herbaceous border plants. Even though the stems of some hardier types won't be killed off, the foliage will start to die back and most plants will be looking untidy at this time of the year.

Cutting back the stems of border plants such as peony, achillea, Russian sage and columbine to about 8-15cm (3 to 6in) before winter is good garden hygiene. Pests and diseases have less host material to over-winter on and the look of your borders will be much tidier. Compost all the material that is disease-free.

Sturdy

Only when stems are carrying seed heads that are attractive to birds or visually pleasing is it worth leaving the stems of grasses, poppies, echinacea and other cone flowers. Bear's britches (Acanthus) and liatris produce upright and sturdy stems that will remain attractive for many months.

Planting up soil beds with winter flowering bedding that will continue to bloom in spring as well is well worth the expense.

Primula, polyanthus and primrose are hardy enough in most areas to survive a few years, producing bright jewel colours whenever the weather is

TOPICAL TIP

Collect all rose leaves that show signs of blackspot disease from plants or that have fallen on the soil. Make a note to spray those roses with a suitable fungicide such as FungusClear Ultra in spring next year when buds start to burst.

mild. If your soil is poor it pays to buy a bag of soil conditioner at the same time as you buy your small plants and to dig this into each planting hole.

The organic matter in Levington Soil Conditioner will improve the water-holding capacity of light soils and improve the drainage in heavy ones. It's a win, win whatever your soil and when spread on the soil surface the dark even texture will add a strong contrast to the bright leaves and flowers.

Collect up all winter leaves as they settle in your flower and shrub borders. Leaving them to rot down in situ is not a good thing as they provide comfy shelters for slugs, snails and other destructive pests. Instead, push the leaves into empty compost bags and wet thoroughly.

Hanging baskets can brighten dull months

DON'T abandon your tubs, troughs or hanging baskets throughout the winter, but plant them up with appropriate subjects that will provide interest and colour in some of the duller months of the year.

The secret of good growth is to fill your containers with fresh compost that contains slow release plant food and to buy good strong plants that will provide leaf texture and flowers in the most difficult of times.

My favourite compost for winter planting is Miracle-Gro Expand 'n Gro because it releases some of its nutrients just after planting and keeps the rest for release only when the temperatures are warm and the plants can absorb the food easily.

Another positive benefit of this compost is that it contains no added lime, it can be used for planting mixed groups that include ericas and heathers that would not thrive in your average compost.

Brighten

Small shrubs such as hebe, skimmia and euonymus will provide a central point of interest or you can provide bright red foliage using Leucothoe scarletta or evergreen Coprosma Fireburst.

Some people prefer the bright red berries of Christmas Cherry (Solanum) surrounded by winter-flowering heathers, pansies or even ornamental cabbage or kale to provide foliage interest.

Many heucheras will also give fascinating leaf colours and markings to brighten your container.

Small-leaved ivies were traditionally used to soften the harsh outlines of containers although nowadays garden centres also offer arching sprays of dec-

Topical tips

Complete the planting of spring bulbs using Miracle-Gro Expand 'n Gro compost. It's peat free and contains a long lasting source of nutrients that will feed the bulbs during next year while they are in full leaf orative grasses such as Carex comens or Carex buchanii to do a similar job.

Other new edging plants also include new tumbling pansies and violas that will grow over the edges and provide plenty of attractive flower colour.

Hanging baskets for winter display should have been established well before now, so it's well worth buying ready-planted baskets from your local garden centre that are in full colour.

Then all you need to do is water regularly and feed occasionally with Miracle-Gro Soluble Plant Food so that the roots are well nurtured.

CHRONICLE MOTORING Powered by motors.co.uk

Volvo takes a fresh look at groundbreaking V40s

VOLVO Car UK has announced the pricing of the all-new Volvo V40 R-Design and Volvo V40 Cross Country.

Starting from £22,295 and £22,595 respectively, Volvo is now able to offer both a more sports inspired and a more rugged looking take on the V40.

The V40 R-Design has taken cues from its R-Design stablemates in the rest of the range, with a re-profiled front bumper and rear diffuser, five-spoke 17" Ixion wheels, silver matt door mirrors, unique R-Design embossed nubuck upholstery, sports floor mats, sports steering wheel and pedals.

In addition to this, as standard, the V40 R-Design benefits from a TFT crystal display screen with unique blue colouring, illuminated gear-knob, unique R-Design aluminium trim and vertical LED day-running lights.

Those wanting the ultimate in sports luxury can upgrade to the R-Design Lux, complementing the standard specification with active bending xenon headlights with cleaning system, rain sensor, leather-faced R-Design embossed seats, cruise control, keyless start and rear theatre lighting.

The V40 R-Design is available in the striking launch colour, Rebel Blue, unique to R-Design, along with six other colours.

Prices start from £22,295 for the D2 R-Design, still benefiting from class leading CO₂ emissions of 94g/km, up to the T5 Geartronic R-Design Lux Nav, available from £31,390.

The V40 Cross Country is Volvo's answer to those customers that want a small 5-door hatchback but with a more "off-road" and rugged look. As standard, the Cross Country SE is offered with autofolding door mirrors with ground lights and black mirror covers, 16" alloy wheels, rain sensor, textile/T-Tec upholstery, tread plates and silver roof rails.

The Cross Country can be further enhanced by specifying the Cross Country Lux version. This includes the ample specification of the SE, plus leather-faced upholstery, active bending xenon headlights, 17" alloy wheels, LED day-running lights, rear reading and theatre lighting.

The V40 Cross Country is available from £22,595 for the D2 Cross Country SE, up to the T5 Geartronic Cross Country Lux Nav with All-Wheel Drive, from £33,875.

Both models are available to order now and first customer deliveries will start to take place in January 2013.

Fascination with the first sighting of the new Mokka

NO sooner had we pulled into a layby on the autobahn north of Hamburg to swap drivers on the launch of Vauxhall's new Mokka than the couple in an Opel parked ahead of us got out and started towards our car.

Minutes before, they'd passed us (both cars 'enjoying' the lack of a speed limit on this stretch of motorway) and were clearly fascinated with their first sight of the Mokka, especially as ours carried Vauxhall badges, not the lightning flash of the Opel brand, German sister to the British machines with a Luton base.

Turned out the couple, just into retirement, had both worked for Opel at its HQ and wanted a look at the newsmen. They liked it and may already have added the Mokka to the list of possible Opels for consideration at car change time. With limbs less supple than in younger days, a tallish car like the Mokka would ease their entry and exit. Building it taller will help with putting much younger passengers on board too, as mum or dad leans in to belt the little 'uns into their seats.

And ages in between might find the added space of this small SUV fits their life well. Thousands more motorists all over Europe are finding SUVs the answer these days, turning this part of the car market into a profitable playground for the makers of everything from the Skoda Yeti to Nissan Duke.

Both are formidable competition for Vauxhall's first entry into this healthily expanding sector. At first glance it looks as though the Mokka is off to a promising start. It looks neat and tidy, even if (unlike the car-spotting ex-Opel employees) it isn't going to catch the eye of passing motorists. Inside, this Korean built but German designed machine, looks rather nicely put together.

Promising start

Priced from £15,995, it comes with the choice of two petrol engines (1.4 and 1.6 litres) and a 1.7 litre diesel, with the latter likely to take more than half the sales in the UK. You can order your Mokka with all-wheel drive, the rears kicking in automatically when the front tyres start to lose traction, perhaps on the wet grass of a temporary car park or on a snowy drive to work. Approaching half of all British buyers are expected to take the all-wheel-drive route.

What engine drives those wheels depends on the buyer's needs and depth of pocket and, with the evidence of my ears, how much he or she values a quiet cockpit. The diesel Mokka, tried first, was never less than gruff (at a British motorway cruise) but ask it to accelerate from any speed and gruff turns to an irritating growl. It was enough to make me keen to try a petrol model as soon as possible.

Ah! That's better was my instant reaction. Because it's got petrol in its veins, the engine needs to be worked harder than the diesel but it stayed (much) quieter all the same. Mum might now hear the pleas of her little angels in the backseats about stopping for a burger.

Namecheck: Why Mokka? The best answer from the Vauxhall brass involved an association with mocha coffee, a caffè latte variant with added chocolate. But they really weren't sure.

Vauxhall is green with pride over their Corsa

The new Corsa 1.3 CDTi EcoFlex will be greener than any Vauxhall apart from the Ampera

VAUXHALL has announced a new variant of the Corsa with lower CO2 emissions than any production by the company except the Ampera.

Producing just 88g/km of carbon dioxide in three-door form, the latest Corsa 1.3 CDTi EcoFlex's figures are 26 per cent lower than those of the first Corsa EcoFlex five years ago.

A five-door version is available with efficiency statistics of 89g/km and 83.1mpg.

The three-door represents a 6g/km and 2.4mpg improvement over the 2011 version of the same car.

All the improvements have come through small upgrades within the engine circuit.

Power and torque from the diesel engine stand at 94bhp and 140lb/ft, the latter of which is available in the ideal rev range, from 1,750 to 3,250rpm.

Top speed is 109mph and 0-62mph takes 12.3 seconds.

The wider Corsa range should now benefit from a more comfortable ride at low speeds, especially around town.

The suspension and damping characteristics have been altered to increase the car's appeal in its natural environment.

All models are available to order now.

Ford's new C-Max models will be available with the new turbocharged fuel-efficient engine

EcoBoost powerplants put Ford's new ranges ahead

FORD will introduce the much-lauded 1.0-litre EcoBoost turbocharged petrol engine in the C-Max and Grand C-Max this month.

The five-seat C-Max will be able to reach 55.4mpg with both the 99bhp and 123bhp versions of the diminutive engine, while the seven-seat Grand C-Max is almost as efficient, with 54.3mpg. CO2 emissions are 117g/km and 119g/km respectively.

After considerable sales success in the Focus, Ford is expanding the range of models which will have the engine.

Roelant de Waard, vice president of marketing, sales and service for Ford of Europe, says: "People love this engine – it puts a smile on your face when you drive and it's amazingly fuel-efficient."

"It's already very popular on the new Focus, so it makes a lot of sense to offer it in the C-Max and Grand C-Max as soon as possible."

A new Titanium X trim level has been added to the C-Max ranges. Standard features include a panoramic roof, xenon headlamps, partial leather seats with heated fronts, power driver seat, new style 17in alloy wheels and, in the five-seat C-MAX, a rear seat bench that slides backwards and forwards to provide more legroom or boot space.

There will be Ford's in-car connectivity system, Sync, with emergency assistance and optional advanced driver assistance technologies.

Jeep borrows the chunky styling of the SRT for its new addition to the Cherokee range

New contender muscles in to premium SUV race

PLANS to continue the success of the Jeep range of 4x4s have been announced, with details of a new Grand Cherokee 'Sports Line' version, the S-Limited.

Designed to sit in the 'sports-styled' premium SUV segment, the new S-Limited will offer muscular sports styling, without the large capacity petrol engines seen in the 6.4-litre V8-powered Grand Cherokee SRT.

The interior has a leather-wrapped heated steering wheel, ventilated Nappa leather seats and racing style pedal pads.

monitoring, Uconnect navigation, black gloss 20-inch alloy wheels, 825-watt Harman-Kardon audio system with 19 speakers and three sub-woofers, power tailgate, and a distinctive black grille and rear light bar.

Powered by Jeep's 237bhp, 2987cc V6 CRD diesel engine with 1.8-bar injectors and MultiJet II technology developed by Fiat Powertrain, the new Grand Cherokee S-Limited will cost £44,595 (OTR) when it goes on sale this month.

Italian design guru adds style to new SsangYong

You get good looks and bags of extra kit for your money with the latest SsangYong Korando

CARS full of Eastern promise have long been associated with Japanese manufacturers since they burst onto the scene in the 1960s and 1970s.

They started hovering up the market and giving a shock to British car manufacturing from which it has never properly recovered.

But now there is another Eastern giant, Korea, threatening their dominance. Most people will be familiar with Hyundai and Kia which started out as low rent budget motors. They have now joined the mainstream, no longer a joke, with a range of vehicles to challenge the best of Europe.

SsangYong is a less familiar name, but this Korean challenger is on a bit of roll thanks to its latest version of the Korando, an impressive all-wheel drive SUV that has thrown down the gauntlet to the opposition with a starting price of less than £19,000 and what is virtually a lifetime guarantee.

It should look good – the man behind the design is the legendary Italian design guru Giugiaro Giugiaro – and has the look of a much more mainstream European model.

It also offers loads of standard kit over and above what you would expect for a car that price, with the added versatility of all-wheel drive.

The engine is also pretty good, a 150bhp two-litre diesel that provides plenty of pulling power and a decent turn of pace.

Mated with a smooth-shifting six-speed gearbox, the car sprints from 0 to 60 in 9.9 seconds and on to a top speed of 116mph, but it still has a claimed fuel economy of 45.6mpg. It also offers the best towing capability, two tonnes.

The engine can be a bit noisy on start-up but soon quiets down and is just a background note on the motorway. Handling is decent enough, but it does wallow when pushed into corners or tight bends.

For business users, CO2 emissions of 157g/km are pretty impressive for an all-wheel drive vehicle, meaning the vehicle attracts a benefit in kind rating of just 25 per cent.

Opt for the front-wheel drive only version, and another 10g/km is shaved off. While the quality may not be quite up there with its competitors in terms of value for money, it is still hard to beat.

Soft touch finish on competitors is replaced with harsher plastics, but having said that, there is no sign of poor-quality build. It is available as either two or four wheel drive, is lavishly equipped and looks perfectly at home parked next to its better-known rivals. It has neat sculpted lines, and the interior is roomy and airy with seats for seven.

Luxury

The tested SX model features on-demand four wheel drive and adds Hill Start Assist. It also comes equipped with a number of luxury touches including roof rails, tinted glass and rear parking sensors, while inside there is a leather-covered steering wheel and gear shift, cruise control and a Kenwood MP3 CD & RDS radio with iPod & Bluetooth, remote audio controls and six speakers.

SsangYong cars are manufactured in South Korea by SsangYong Motor, which is 70 per cent owned by the Indian engineering conglomerate Mahindra & Mahindra, and imported into the UK by SsangYong Motor UK.

If other Korean makers are anything to go by, we will be seeing a lot more of SsangYong.

Official Government Test Environmental Data. Fuel consumption figures mpg (litres/100km) and CO₂ emissions (g/km). Vauxhall range (excl. Ampera): Urban: 14.4 (19.6) - 76.3 (3.7), Extra-urban: 27.4 (10.3) - 91.1 (3.1), Combined: 20.6 (13.7) - 85.6 (3.3). CO₂ emissions: 324 - 88g/km.

*Not Available on Expression, ES, Vauxhall Tech Line, New Astra Hatchback/Sports Tourer BiTurbo, Ampera and VXR8 models. Vauxhall Deposit Contribution excludes Mokka and Corsa SXi models. †Term can be from 24-60 months. Finance subject to status. Terms and conditions apply. Applicants must be 18 or over. Guarantee/Indemnity may be required. Flexible Finance supplied by either Vauxhall Motor Finance RHI 1SR or Vauxhall Finance, PO Box 6666, Cardiff, CF15 7YT. Offer applies to private individuals. Vauxhall Partners and small businesses 1-24 (purchase only excluding B2B). All other customers are excluded. Offer available on orders or registrations before 17 December 2012. †Vauxhall Lifetime Warranty covers lifetime ownership of first registered keeper, 100,000 mile limit. Terms and conditions apply.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED)
ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991
WALKMILL LANE/NORTH STREET/NEW STREET, CANNOCK DIVERSION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in that length of:

- Walkmill Lane for a distance of approximately 140 metres from its junction with the A5 Watling Street
 - North Street for a distance of approximately 105 metres from its junction with the A5 Watling Street
 - New Street for a distance of approximately 90 metres from its junction with the A5 Watling Street
- unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works; or unless the vehicle requires access to premises on the length of road or is being used for police, fire brigade or ambulance purposes. Pedestrian access will be maintained.

The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via:

- (a) A5 Watling Street, Lakeside Boulevard, Walkmill Lane and vice versa, and
- (b) & (c) A5 Watling Street, Delta Way, Longford Road and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON TUESDAY 20 NOVEMBER 2012, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. THE CLOSURE WILL BE EFFECTIVE AS FOLLOWS:

- 20 November 2012 at 18:45 to 07:00 hours on 21 November 2012
- 21-23 November 2012 daily at 19:00 to 07:00 the following morning
- 24 November 2012 at 18:00 to 09:15 hours on 25 November 2012

It is anticipated that the works will be completed by Sunday 25 November 2012.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the loop cutting works on A5 Watling Street, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if a pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements

YOUNG martial artists from Chasetown Wado-Ryu Karate club look to be on top form as they prepare for a friendly competition next month.

Members of the club's Heath Hayes branch will compete against the 6 10 Community Centre in Kingstanding, Birmingham, on December 2.

It follows on from tasting success at the Open Championships in Sheffield, when five members took home six medals between them.

Jamie Taul, aged 10, won gold in the individual kata and the individual fighting (kumite) categories.

He also won gold in the pairs kata, together with Finlay Lewis, aged nine, who received a bronze in kumite.

Jay Richards, 11, achieved the club's second gold in kumite and Laura Connelly, 15, was awarded bronze in the individual kata.

Beth Busby, aged 15, was also commended for her performance.

Prior to that was an impressive team performance at a team event in Chelmsford last month.

Some of the members will also be trying out for their black belt in Hereford on November 10 and 11.

Mandy Hughes, instructor at the club in Heath Hayes Primary School, Wimblebury Road, said: "I'm very proud of all of them. To go into the competition with such a small number and come out with so many medals is a great achievement."

"It's nice when people of such a young age show such support for each other and such sportsmanship."

For details of the club, call Mandy on 077485 82133 or Alison on 07969 833592.

Burntwood double up

BURNTWOOD squash team are celebrating a double success.

The side, who play in the Midlands League, have added the Summer League Division One title to their 2011/12 Winter League success.

Based at Burntwood Leisure Centre, the team play home games on Wednesday evenings.

Club night is Sunday from 5.20pm and new players are welcome.

Chasetown 1 Rushall Olympic 3
CHASETOWN'S Rushall hoodoo continued as they suffered a ninth straight defeat against their local rivals to bow out of the FA Trophy, writes Paul Mullins.

Jack Farmer blocked Rushall's initial attack out for a corner, but following a goalmouth scramble after Grant Beckett's corner that the home side failed to deal with, Walker added his second from inside the six-yard box.

Chasetown struggled to get any joy from a well organised Rushall defence and their best chance came five minutes before half-time.

Nick Wellecomme, on his return from injury, nipped in among two Rushall defenders and set up Richard Teesdale, who was quickly charged down by Mitchell Tolley and he could only scoop an effort wide of the post.

There was an element of good fortune about the Pies' third goal, 10 minutes into the second half.

Josh Craddock flicked the ball into former Scholar Danny Bragoli, who was left one-on-one with Price and netted coolly, but there were justified claims from the Scholars defence that there was both an offside and a handball in the build-up.

Chasetown had failed to score in each of the last six games against Rushall but at least they were able to end that record.

Twelve minutes from the end, Gavin Saunders met substitute Danny Ashton's corner at full stretch and diverted his header beyond Chris Gemmell's dive.

Four minutes later, any chance of Chasetown making a comeback was extinguished. A Wellecomme volley was deflected goalwards by Danny Smith and was blocked in front of the keeper by a despairing defender's challenge.

Had that gone in, Chasetown may have created some panic among the visitors back line. Instead, the final 10 minutes was devoid of any clear scoring opportunities for Chasetown and the visitors deservedly progressed into Monday's draw and Chasetown need to turn their attention back to league football starting at Carlton Town last night (Wed).

Chasetown: Price, Downes, Jackson, Farmer, Maguire (Ashton, 70), Teesdale, Westwood (Sullivan, 67), Saunders, Wellecomme, Smith, Robinson (Sould, 76). Subs not used: Branch, Kisiel.

Rushall Olympic: Gemmell, K. Haynes, Beckett, Tolley, Daniel, Caines, Craddock, Bragoli, Walker (Clarke, 76), Islam (Stephens, 80), Fitzpatrick (Landell, 80). Subs not used: Spittle, J. Haynes.

Pied Piper lead the way with cup shock

DIVISION FIVE outfit Pied Piper provided the shock of the day in the second round of the Cannock Chase Cup.

Pied Piper, with only three wins to their name this season, produced a stunning all-round team performance to knock out First Division Nelson Inn.

Goals by Dave Brazier, Dan Stevens, Chris Picken and Mark Stokes and a man of the match performance from Jason Lavender saw Piper to a 4-1 victory.

Rugeley United climbed two places up to fourth in the Premier League after beating Yates Sports 5-1.

Ryan Winters led the victory charge with two goals while there was one each for Reece Baker, Stuart Tapper and Kieron Buglar.

Bar Sports tasted success for the first time this season in Division One.

Andy Alden netted twice for Sports with Richard Hewitt and Danny Farmer also on target.

FC Premier Suite moved into second spot second after beating Short Heath Poets 4-2. Strikes Matty Barham, James Meer and a double blast from Mick McMahn saw them home.

CK Academy are the new leaders in Division Two.

Goals from Ben Farrell,

Dan Campbell, Connor Hurley and Dave Sheridan secured the points.

Broomhill Albion lost top spot after their 1-1 draw with Victoria Athletic.

Cheslyn Hay drew 2-2 with Mary Rose.

Hawkins Inex beat Victoria 3-0 with Lee Boswell (2) and Luke Taylor on target.

In Division Three, Royal Exchange made it two wins from two after beating Hawkins Sports 2-1 thanks to a David Potts double.

Freemans won their first game in the league, beating Yew Tree 3-0 with goals from Ash Warrilow, Matty Burns and Steve Morris.

Jason Pilkington (2), Aaron Clifton, Darrell Bradley and Jason Kirkham hit the net as Jolly Collier beat Essington 5-1 in Division Four.

A Jason Roberts' double earned Hope and Anchor a 2-0 win over Brinsford.

Hazel Slade thrashed AFC Fern 7-0 with Adam Green scoring four goals, Gary Longden (2) and Luke Woodward (1).

Red-hot Hednesford hit the goal trail

Hednesford Girls Under-15s are all smiles after hitting the goal trail in their Staffs League clash with Walsall

Hednesford United U13 Girls 15 Walsall Ladies 0

THE Hednesford hot-shots turned on the style as they powered to a resounding Staffs County League success.

one-way assault on the Walsall goal.

Strikers Kate Clinton and Lois Brindley proved too hot to handle as they led the goal rush.

Molly Bruton (2), Samantha Fawdon (2) and Leah Pugh completed the scoring.

Hednesford are looking for an additional defender to join their existing squad. Interested players should call 07919 105630 for more details.

Building is renamed for Arthur

RUGELEY Police Boys boxing club have renamed their club building in memory of Arthur Deakin, who passed away in June after a long illness.

He had held the position of vice president for many years and invested a huge amount of his time to the club over a quarter of a century.

Deakin's love for boxing in Rugeley began when he was 10-years-old, two years after his arrival in the town in 1930 from the Salfrey area of Birmingham.

On the off-chance he was asked to box at Rugeley Carnival Day and continued to box there each year until he left school.

Despite his failing health he continued to attend regular committee meetings and was relentless in pursuing funding and support for the club.

He was always a recognisable figure sitting at ring-side in support of the local lads.

GREAT Wyrley Juniors have presented trophies to the first three inductees into their Hall of Fame.

The criteria for entry by players or ex-players were: playing a League game at League 2 or above; scoring in the FA Cup Round 1 or above or capped at any level.

At a packed clubhouse awards night recognised Tom Marshall, who scored for Tamworth in Round 2 of the FA Cup and from U12s to U16s; Danny Smith, who scored for Chasetown in Round 2 of the FA Cup and played for U10s to U16s, and Olivia Fergusson, who has been capped by England Ladies at U17s level and played for U10s level.

In addition, 2012 awards were given to Club Team of the Year, U11s Colts, the Matt Harrison Memorial Trophy; Endeavour Team of the Year, U8s Panthers, the Walmsley Trophy; Player of the Year, Emily Tonks, the Ben Young Memorial Trophy; Clubman of the Year, 13 year old Carl Parfitt, the Jo Stoddart Memorial Trophy. Club founder, president and treasurer Bill Hickenbottom received a Lifetime Achievement Award.

Rugeley 2nds 0 Handsworth 3rds 30

A mixture of 2nd and 3rd team players started with impressive rucking and pushing but Handsworth took advantage of Rugeley's inexperienced backs.

They sneaked a try in five minutes but Rugeley, with many players pushed into the firsts due to illness, held the visitors to the annoyance of the Handsworth pack.

The forwards caused some inconvenience with an unlucky missed try by Flanker Matty O'Connell.

Handsworth had a five-point lead going into the second period but got a try under the posts and went 10-0 up.

Rugeley continued to show spirit with a great crunching tackle by captain Chedgoy and a run down the right by new boy Anthony Wheeler being stopped by the prop 1.5 metres off the line.

Rugeley conceded a penalty 25 metres out for the visitors to go to 23-0 with only five minutes left.

Handsworth's flanker stole the ball and the fly half was able to run the length of the field to score under the posts with the only conversion of the afternoon bringing the score to 30.

Rugeley captain Scott Chedgoy said: "The Boys all played valiantly the score line does not respect the effort and fighting determination each and every one of those boys deserve".

Man of the match was Eddie Rodgers.

Rugeley 1sts lost to St Leonards (Stafford) 24-11.

Late strike sinks Hayes

Lichfield Round Table U15s 3 Heath Hayes U15s 2

BATTILING Hayes were just minutes away from what would have been a deserved draw against the Lichfield League Division One leaders. However, their efforts ultimately proved in vain.

The visitors twice led through Ben Blakeley and Curtis Shipp, but were pegged at 2-2 at half-time.

Hayes' hopes of a reward were ended by a late goal from the hosts.

Team talent shows despite low numbers

5 Ways Old Edwardians 8 Cannock Lions 13

A 16-man squad low on numbers but not lacking talent battled to an important away win.

As Lions played into the wind 5 Ways dominated but a penalty in kicking range was missed and from then much possession fell to Cannock, Frost and Stanaway foraging for ball at every breakdown.

The wind gave 5 Ways an easy out through the boot and any lost possession was punished with a clearing kick. The other option being 5 Ways' man of the match number seven carried strongly and spoiled ball effectively at the breakdown. One break was only spoiled as the seven passed to the home team winger for a certain try.

Cannock winger Mayle intercepted the pass and support from Ratcliffe allowed the ball to be cleared. Fly half MacDonald kicked out of hand into the blustery wind and the pack were grateful for successful touch finds.

Cannock's lineup was bordering immaculate with great arrows from Sinclair providing a platform from which scrumhalf Ball could 'feed' the backs. Yates and Ley in the centre pairing repeatedly tore through the centre of the park exposing 5 Ways only really weak point, their own centre pairing.

Yates broke through to provide Ley with a run in from the 22. The conversion was missed.

A clearing kick from 5 Ways and a fantastic chase put the Cannock back three under pressure resulting in a penalty converted on the stroke of half-time to make it 3-5.

A 5 Ways' scrum on halfway, and a strong carry from the seven saw 5 Ways in behind the defence.

Good scramble defence covered initial phases but pressure told and the scrum half drove over from short range, unconverted, for 8-5.

Pressure built and, without the wind, 5 Ways found it hard to clear.

Yates found a gap and provided Frost with a short range finish.

MacDonald converted for 8-10.

Repeated infringements from 5 Ways' centre gave Cannock a penalty, converted to win 8-13.

Cannock man of the match was Craig MacDougall.

The seconds had a 56-7 win over Stafford thirds. Man of the match went to Jamie Fullelove after his hat-trick. The thirds' very inexperienced side played well but lost 35-5 to Utttoxeter seconds. Man of the match was Al Sindrey.

The juniors had a session from 10.30 till 12 followed by two good league wins and great, invaluable experience for some lads new to the game.

Anybody interested in joining the club should get to the Morgan Ground, behind the Blue Ginger, on a Wednesday evening 7-8.30, juniors Saturday 10.30-12.

This Saturday there are two games at home so plenty for the spectator as well.

Five-goal Shenstone in top spot

Florance Ladies 2 Shenstone Ladies 5

SHENSTONE brushed aside the early Staffordshire Womens League leaders to claim top spot in a tough top-of-the-table clash.

The game started at a fast tempo with both sides going all-out to take the points.

Shenstone went behind after 30 minutes as Florance took advantage of one of their usual long balls.

The striker, who timed her run perfectly, raced through to beat the keeper.

Shenstone dug in and slowly began to make their mark. Only brave goalkeeping from the Florance keeper kept it to 1-0 nil at half-time.

In the second half Shenstone went all out attack, which soon paid off when Jade Arber powered in a loose ball on the edge of the box to level the score.

Minutes later more pressure earned a corner and Jodie Kinsey scored straight from the kick.

captain Lissy Bailes hit a rocket of a shot from outside

fortable win.

Hayes close to grabbing the spoils

Gornal Athletic 2
Heath Hayes 2

AFTER facing the prospect of a heavy defeat at half-time, Heath Hayes will be kicking themselves for not winning this a topsy-turvy game at Garden Walk.

Hayes could have taken an early lead but two brilliant saves by Jamie Pemberton thwarted Dominic Coulson and Dave Waple.

The Peacocks took a 20th minute lead when poor defending allowed Lee Wherton to fire home.

Waple came close to equalising on 28 minutes but his effort cannoned off the bar and ran along the goal line.

Curtis Tilt increased the home side's lead when he headed home unchallenged from Paul Wood's free-kick.

For the rest of the half the Peacocks ran the Hayes defence ragged and it took a couple of interceptions from man of the match Tom Baggott to keep them at bay.

The second half could not have opened better for the visitors. Coulson picked up the ball from the kick-off and his right-wing cross was volleyed home from the edge of the box by Brad Grice.

Adam Lane then did well to keep out a goalbound effort from Ravi Sangha.

Hayes equalised on 78 minutes thanks to Tom Green's fine individual effort. Waple flicked the ball into space, allowing the striker to spring the offside trap and he coolly lobbed Pemberton from 20 yards.

Waple then had only the keeper to beat but was caught in two minds. With the game's last kick Green blasted over an open goal.

The draw followed a stirring 3-2 win over Causeway on Saturday when Hayes twice came from behind.

Burntwood to celebrate

BURNTWOOD RUGBY CLUB is hosting a party to celebrate its 40th anniversary.

The event will take place on Friday, November 23 and the club is hoping to attract a host of former players.

A hog roast, female vocalist, live group and disco will be provided but there will be plenty of time for players to reminisce about the good old days.

Tickets are £10 each. For more details contact Rob Forsyth on 01543 305997 or the clubhouse on 01543 676651.

Paddy gets England's call to go Down Under

Cannock Hockey

England will compete in the series against hosts Australia, Pakistan and India.

The revised format sees teams restricted to a maximum of nine players on the pitch at the one time with rules covering how many players may be in an area of the pitch at any given moment.

Matches consist of two 20-minute halves and the goal is one metre wider than a regulation hockey goal.

Following the conclusion of the Super 9s tournament, England will compete in the Champions Trophy in Melbourne between December 1 and 9.

England's Pool A opponents are Olympic champions Germany, New Zealand and India. Hosts Australia, London 2012 silver medalists the Netherlands, Belgium and Pakistan will contest Pool B.

Cannock are continuing to reap the rewards for having a strong youth policy with Nick Bandurak and Arjun Drayton Chana waiting to find out whether they have been selected for the final England Under-21 squad to play in the Australian Youth Olympic Festival in January 2013.

This weekend Cannock will once again host the prestigious England Hockey Futures Cup event, which runs at Chase Park from Thursday to Sunday.

Cannock juniors, George Myatt, Louie Morris, Reece Jekett and Callum Stacey play in this tier of competition below international selection.

The Futures Cup offers them a first chance to experience a tournament run as it would be at international level.

The Cannock youngsters athletes will be hoping to catch the eye and progress to the England National Age Group Squads.

Medals success for club

THE Meiji School of Excellence have claimed top marks following success in two championships events.

The club entered a range of Judo kai from beginners/low grade junior members to higher graded senior members in the Bushi Championship in Birmingham and the AJA National Open in Leicester.

And Meiji's determination and training paid off once again as they returned home with 28 medals.

They landed six golds, five silver and three bronze medals in the Bushi Championship.

The club, which is run at Burntwood and Heath Hayes, also entered two teams but after lifting the title for the previous two years, Meiji had to content with silver and bronze.

In the AJA National Open, the club picked up seven golds, three silvers and four four bronze medals.

Stewart Hogg, third dan black belt, said: "The Bushi Championships was a great event for our beginners to get a taste of championship events and success."

"I am proud of all of my fighters. They train hard and are committed to the sport of Judo."

Hylton's wings clipped by loss

RUGELEY'S Mark Hylton fell at the first hurdle in the PDC Dutch Darts Masters as he slipped to a 6-4 defeat at the hands of unknown David Venken.

'Mile High' Hylton - a former airline cabin crew manager - failed to reach the heights as he dropped legs at crucial stages to bow out of the European Tour event in Nuland, Holland.

HEDNESFORD LEAVE MARINE ALL AT SEA

Hednesford Town 2 Marine 0
HEDNESFORD boosted their promotion hopes by sinking fellow high-flyers Marine at Keys Park.

A goal in each half from Aaron Rey and Elliott Durrell, sandwiching a stupid red card for Marine's John Shaw which gave the away team a mountain to climb, fired the hosts to victory.

On an emotional night at Keys Park that saw The Pitmen mark the sad passing of loyal supporter Don Griffiths with a minute's applause before kick-off, Rob Smith's in-form side turned in their most dominant performance of the season.

The victory was the Pitmen's fourth in a row and followed on from Saturday's impressive FA Trophy success against Trafford.

Tested

Second-placed Marine started the game confidently but the home side always threatened with the former Mariners strikeforce of Neil Harvey and Aaron Rey a constant thorn in the side of their old team.

Jonathan Goulding tested Hednesford keeper Dan Crane early on with a rasping drive before the lively Rey jinked into the visitors' penalty area and saw his shot beaten away by McMahon on 18 minutes.

Alex Melbourne's cross from the right found Harvey whose scuffed left foot shot fell to Rey 12 yards out and the striker made no mistake as he lashed the ball past McMahon.

The real turning point came on 40 minutes when the hosts were given a helping hand courtesy of a moment of madness from Shaw.

He inexplicably kicked a prone Durrell after the whistle had gone and was rightly dismissed to leave his side up against it.

To their credit Marine stayed positive in the second half and persevered with two men in attack as they tried to find a way back into the contest.

But they rarely threatened Pitmen shot-keeper Crane as they hosts continued to control the game.

Hednesford wrapped up the win on 69 minutes. A perfectly judged through ball by Jamey Osborne set Durrell racing away. He finished superbly, opening his body up before stroking the ball beyond McMahon to secure a vital three points.

Hednesford will be looking to maintain their form when they travel to face Whitby Town in the league on Saturday.

Hednesford Town: Crane, Disney, Campion, Bailey, Barnes, Melbourne, Osborne, Durrell (Lennon 83), Harvey (O'Connor 83), Rey, Woolfe (Bottomor 77). Subs not used: Francis, Hornby.

Pitch concerns Smith

HEDNESFORD will be aiming to turn on their Sunday best after landing an FA Trophy trip to face Romulus.

The Pitmen, who booked their place in the third qualifying round with a 2-0 win at Trafford on Saturday, will tackle the Evo-Stik First Division South side on Sunday, November 11 (2pm kick off).

Romulus, currently lying fifth bottom in the league below Hednesford, play their home games at Sutton Coldfield Town and, due to the fact that Sutton are at home on Saturday, November 10 the game will take place the following day.

Hednesford have managed to avoid bigger fish in the draw and while boss Rob Smith was confident his team will deal with the Sunday shift as the bid to reach the first round proper, he did admit that the artificial pitch at Coles Lane gives Romulus an advantage.

"I'm not sure the day of the game really matters," he said. "Footballers don't really like change much but I think the pitch gives them a massive advantage."

"Although the surface is good for an artificial pitch, obviously our lads have not had the chance to play on it so it will be different."
